Transcultural Negotiations of Gender Saugata Bhaduri,Indrani Mukherjee,2015-09-18 Transcultural Negotiations of Gender probes into how gender is negotiated along the two axes of belonging and longing the twin desires of being located within a cultural milieu while yearning for either what has passed by or what is yet to come It also probes into the category of transculturality itself by examining how not only does it pertain to the coming together of cultures from diverse spatial locations but how shifts over time and changing performative modes and technological means of articulation within what may be presumed to be the same culture can also lead to the transcultural The volume comprises four sections Part I Be longing in Time examines negotiation of gender through transcultural acts of myths rituals and religious practices being revised and revisited over time Part II Be longing in Space studies how gender is renegotiated when people from different spaces interact as also when public spaces and domains themselves become sites of such negotiations In Part III Performing Be longing such transcultural negotiations are located in the context of changing modes of performance considering particularly that gender itself is performative The final section Modernity Technology and Be longing traces how gender becomes transculturally
