Baseball Chronology 1900 1999:

International Sport: A Bibliography, 2000 Richard William Cox, 2013-10-23 There has been an explosion in the quantity of sports history literature published in recent years making it increasingly difficult to keep abreast of developments. The annual number of publications has increased from around 250 to 1 000 a year over the last decade. This is due in part to the fact that during the late 1980s and 90s many clubs leagues and governing bodies of sport have celebrated their centenaries and produced histories to mark this occasion and commemorate their achievements. It is also the result of the growing popularity and realisation of the importance of sport history research within academe. This international bibliography of books articles conference proceedings and essays in the English language is a one stop for the sports historian to know what is new. Subject Guide to Books in Print, 2001

All of Philadelphia's current teams the Phillies in baseball the Eagles in football the Flyers in ice hockey and the 76ers in basketball have won championships. The list of champs also includes long gone teams such as the Athletics in baseball the Warriors in basketball and the Frankford Yellow Jackets in football. In Rich Westcott's The Champions of Philadelphia each of these teams earns a chapter devoted to its championship season. There are detailed descriptions of the games and players plus noteworthy interviews. Starting with teams from the 1940s Westcott has interviewed more than fifty players managers coaches and others including luminaries such as Mike Schmidt Chuck Bednarik and Bobby Clarke. The City of Brotherly Love is also a city that loves its champions. Westcott's in depth account of Philadelphia's athletic triumphs will attract fans of each of the four active professional teams.
