The current cultural situation in the world and in some particular countries is rather alerting mainly because of rather low interest and awareness of the audience in different topics related to the cultural development of the own country Attracting new audience in this sphere is a question of primal interest for the organizations responsible for cultural development of the nation In general applying the methods of marketing into the sphere of culture can be considered as a rather sensible approach mainly because they are based on psychological techniques of attraction attention In the conditions of British cultural development the issue of attracting audience in the sphere of culture can be considered as a great break in the sphere of cultural expansion in the country Analyzing the methods of audience development can be used for further usage of the strategies related to the cultural development of the country
