Airship nine Thomas Harris Block,1986 Airship Nine Thomas Block,1985 The only survivors of nuclear war are on Airship Nine a futuristic commercial dirigible carrying both cargo and passengers over the Antarctic scientists in isolated Antarctic communities and Russians in a nuclear powered submarine The question is whether the survivors will identify as enemies or will cooperate toward surviving as human beings Airship Nine Thomas Block,1984 D'Orcy's Airship Manual Ladislav d' Orcy,1917 Balloons and Airships Anthony Burton,2019-04-30 Looks at the brave and sometimes foolish men and women who were responsible for the development of manned flight History of War This book tells the often dramatic and always fascinating story of flight in lighter than air machines For centuries man had dreamed of flying but all attempts failed until in 1782 the Montgolfier brothers constructed the world's first hot air balloon The following year saw the first ascent with aeronauts not human beings but a sheep a duck and a cockerel But it was not long before men and women too took to the air and became ever more adventurous In the 19th century balloons found a new role in the military But their use was always limited by the fact that they were at the mercy of the wind There were numerous attempts at steering balloons and various attempts were made to power them but it was the arrival of the internal combustion engine that saw the balloon transformed into the airship The most famous developer of airships was Graf von Zeppelin and the book tells the story of the use of his airships in both peacetime and at war There were epic adventures including flights over the poles and for a time commercial airships flourished then came the disaster of the Hindenburg Airships still fly today and ballooning has become a hugely popular pastime Entertaining and informative a series of interesting snapshots giving a flavor of these challenging and daring exploits Flying in Ireland Absolutely enthralling Books Monthly Airship Saga Arthur Frederick Daubeney Eveleigh-de Moleyns Baron Ventry,Eugène M.
