Black Gravity:

Black Movement Jeffrey O. G. Ogbar, 2025-04-15 The Great Migration of African Americans from the South to northern and western cities between 1915 and 1970 fundamentally altered the political social and cultural landscapes of major urban centers like New York Chicago Philadelphia and Detroit and changed the country as well By the late twentieth century Black people were mayors police chiefs and school superintendents often at parity and sometimes overrepresented in municipal jobs in these and other cities which were also hubs for Black literature music film and politics Since the 1970s migration patterns have significantly shifted away from the major sites of the Great Migration where some iconic Black communities have been replaced by mostly non Black residents Although many books have examined Black urban experiences in America this is the first written by historians focusing on the post Great Migration era It is centered on numerous facets of Black life including popular culture policing suburbanization and political organizing across multiple cities In this landmark volume Jeffrey O G Ogbar and his contributors explore the last half century of African American urban history covering a landscape transformed since the end of the Great Migration and demonstrating how cities remain dynamic into the twenty first century Contributors are Stefan M Bradley Scot Brown Tatiana M F Cruz Tom Adam Davies LaShawn Harris Maurice J Hobson Shannon King Melanie D Newport Jeffrey O G Ogbar Brian Purnell J T Roane Chanelle Rose Benjamin H Saracco and Fiona Vernal

A Black Gaze Tina M. Campt, 2023-03-21 Examining the work of contemporary Black artists who are dismantling the white gaze and demanding that we see and see Blackness in particular anew In A Black Gaze Tina Campt examines Black contemporary artists who are shifting the very nature of our interactions with the visual through their creation and curation of a distinctively Black gaze Their work from Deana Lawson's disarmingly intimate portraits to Arthur Jafa's videos of the everyday beauty and grit of the Black experience from Kahlil Joseph's films and Dawoud Bey's photographs to the embodied and multimedia artistic practice of Okwui Okpokwasili Simone Leigh and Luke Willis Thompson requires viewers to do more than simply look it solicits visceral responses to the visualization of Black precarity Campt shows that this new way of seeing shifts viewers from the passive optics of looking at to the active struggle of looking with through and alongside the suffering and joy of Black life in the present The artists whose work Campt explores challenge the fundamental disparity that defines the dominant viewing practice the notion that Blackness is the elsewhere or nowhere of whiteness These artists create images that flow that resuscitate and revalue the historical and contemporary archive of Black life in radical ways Writing with rigor and passion Campt describes the creativity ingenuity cunning and courage that is the modus operandi of a Black gaze
