Balcony Scene Donald Elser, 1983* Loving Daughters F.W. Watt, 2014-12 Clarence Martin a dour and testy small town lawyer in his later sixties likes to think he can maintain a stoical distance from the troubles of his clients especially the women whose female nature is beyond his understanding Yet over many years he keeps getting involved especially with his old friend Gladys Hampton and her only child Sarah His dealings with them remind him of his own wife Mary long divorced for a reason he tries to forget and his step daughter Annabel who like Sarah deserted an unhappy home as a teenager Clarence gets caught up too in Sarah's complicated life including a dangerous episode from which she narrowly escapes unharmed and which he brings to account in the safe confines of his office Her early involvements with what appear to be highly unsuitable men result in her alienation from her mother whose burning desire to preserve the continuity of her 150 year old family estate tests all of Clarence's patience toughness and legal skills Through all these personal and professional involvements Clarence struggles to deal with the challenges limitations and humiliating mistakes of his own maleness Perhaps they keep him from fully understanding the passionate affairs of the mothers and daughters in whose lives he plays so central a role But in the end he can share the joy of an event that transcends all barriers between the sexes More fiction by F W Watt Heads or Tails 23 Stories After the Funeral The Road to Sutton The Youth Drug The Lannigan Set Up Joking Matters Where is Julius

The Third Daughter's Wish Kaitlyn Rice, 2014-10-15 One Man Had All The Answers Josie Blume's earliest memories were of an eccentric mother who hid her three daughters away from prying eyes and scared off trespassers with a gun Josie's bizarre childhood had to be the explanation for her miserable track record with the opposite sex That's why the spunky interior designer needed to piece together her family puzzle even though it meant finding the father who'd rejected her at birth and who might reject her again As always her buddy Gabe Thomas was beside her every step of the way Yet the closer she got to the truth the more confusing things became Of course passion was something women shared with men but passion with your best male friend Heartland Sisters together again
