Race, Crime and Criminal Justice A. Kalunta-Crumpton, 2010-03-31 This book provides a focused and critical international overview of the intersections between race crime perpetration and victimization and criminal justice policy and practice responses to crime perpetration and crime victimization

Black Males and the Criminal Justice System Jason M. Williams, Steven Kniffley, 2019-07-15 Relying on a multidisciplinary framework of inquiry and critical perspective this edited volume addresses the unique experiences of Black males within various stages of contact in the criminal justice system It provides a comprehensive overview of the administration of justice mental and physical health issues faced by Black males and reintegration into society after system involvement Recent events including but by no means limited to the shootings of unarmed Black men by police in Ferguson Missouri Baltimore Minneapolis and Chicago have highlighted the disproportionate likelihood of young Black males to encounter the criminal justice system Black Males and the Criminal Justice System provides a theoretical and empirical review of the need for an intersectional understanding of Black male experiences and outcomes within the criminal justice system The intersectional approach which posits that outcomes of societal experiences are determined by the way the interconnected identities of individuals are perceived and responded to by others is key to recognizing the various forms of oppression that Black males experience and the impact these experiences have on them and their families This book is intended for students and scholars in criminology criminal justice sociology race ethnic studies legal studies psychology and African American Studies and will serve as a reference for researchers who wish to utilize a progressive theoretical approach to study social control policing and the criminal justice system The Handbook of Race, Ethnicity, Crime, and Justice Ramiro Martinez, Jr., Meghan E. Hollis, Jacob I. Stowell, 2018-06-08 This Handbook presents current and future studies on the changing dynamics of the role of immigrants and the impact of immigration across the United States and industrialized and developing nations It covers the changing dynamics of race ethnicity and immigration and discusses how it all contributes to variations in crime policing and the overall justice system Through acknowledging that some groups especially people of color are disproportionately influenced more than others in the case of criminal justice reactions the War on Drugs and hate crimes this Handbook introduces the importance of studying race and crime so as to better understand it It does so by recommending that researchers concentrate on ethnic diversity in a national and international context in order to broaden their demographic and expand their understanding of how to attain global change Featuring contributions from top experts in the field The Handbook of Race and Crime is presented in five sections An Overview of Race Ethnicity Crime and Justice Theoretical Perspectives on Race and Crime Race Gender and the Justice System Gender and Crime and Race Gender and Comparative Criminology Each section of the book addresses a key area of research summarizes findings or shortcomings whenever possible and provides new results relevant to race crime and justice Every contribution is written by a top expert in the field and based on the latest research With a sharp focus on contemporary race ethnicity crime and justice studies The Handbook of Race and Crime is the ideal reference for advanced undergraduate students graduate students and scholars interested in the disciplines such as Criminology Race and Ethnicity Race and the Justice System and the Sociology of Race

International Journal of Comparative and Applied Criminal Justice, 2003 The Criminal Justice System and Blacks Daniel E. Georges-Abeyie, 1984 This collection of original papers and articles by leading criminologists as well as interviews with black criminal justice professionals and jurists provides a detailed look at the theory and practice of criminal research on crime race and justice The System in Black and White Michael W. Markowitz, Delores D. Jones-Brown, 2000-04-30 In a collection of compelling contributions to the study of the nexus between race crime and justice noted scholars in the field critique many long held assumptions and myths about race challenging criminal justice policymakers to develop new and effective strategies for dealing with the social problems such misunderstandings create In sections devoted to criminological theory law enforcement courts and the law juvenile delinquency and gender contributors endeavor to dispel myths about African American involvement in the criminal justice system In so doing a number of important facts are established about the race crime nexus For example in an analysis of criminological theory it is concluded that race as a singular social factor has not been adequately represented in existing paradigms The subject of police profiling of African Americans reveals an evolution of court decisions that have marginalized rather than liberated African Americans since slavery Each contributor challenges both the reader and the criminal justice system to develop meaningful strategies for addressing the racism that still pervades our system of justice A chapter on women of color in prison makes a compelling argument that such institutions often represent safer environments than the life on the streets women leave behind This persuasive volume will be of interest to undergraduate and graduate students as well as faculty in Sociology Criminal Justice policy development African American and Women s Studies

Lipsey V. Chicago Cook County Criminal Justice Commission, 1986 Race, Crime and Justice Barbara Hudson, 1996 Race Crime and Justice brings together influential British and American articles on the involvement of minority ethnic groups with crime and criminal justice After reviewing empirical and theoretical issues the volume presents key facts about racial imbalances in prison populations and addresses the question of whether these are the result of discrimination by the criminal justice systems of the United Kingdom and the United States or whether they can be explained by higher crime rates among certain racial groups Articles included cover possible discrimination by the police and the courts and the effects of particular criminal justice strategies are addressed Recent research on race biological characteristics and criminality is summarised and challenged as is underclass theory which has had significant impact on thinking about crime and criminal justice in the 1990s A final section deals with the criminal justice treatment of black women and looks towards a more gendered understanding of the effect of race on crime and justice

African American Classics in Criminology and Criminal Justice Shaun L Gabbidon, Helen Taylor Greene, Vernetta D Young, 2002 Congratulations to SAGE author Shaun L Gabbidon for becoming the second scholar in the college s history to be named a Distinguished Professor by the University s Office of the President Pennsylvania State University Harrisburg This collection of writings is crucially important in part because it reminds us the theoretical paradigms of these and other African American scholars are excluded when crime its causes and its control are discussed by criminologists criminal justice practitioners and policy makers To understand crime fully the perspectives advanced by these scholars must become an integral part of discussions about who is a criminal and which public policies will best control crime From the forward by Anne Thomas Sulton Ph D J D From W E B Dubois through Lee Brown this anthology provides a collection of the key articles in criminology and criminal justice written by black scholars Available in a single volume for the first time the articles collected in this book reflect the voices of African American scholars and display the diversity of perspectives sought after in today s academic community Crime in the African American community is examined from social economic and political perspectives and the historical context of each article is provided by the editors Spanning the 20th century these works present a historical chronology of African American views on crime and its control with theoretical perspectives that have often been tangential to mainstream scholarship For your courses in Criminological Theory Race and Crime Crime and Social Policy Minorities and Criminal Justice

African-American Perspectives on Crime Causation, Criminal Justice Administration, and Crime Prevention Anne Thomas Sulton, 1996 Fifteen articles written by African American criminologists respond to urban crime and policies to control it The contributors examine the status of African American scholars in the field of criminal justice and consider some of the historical reasons for contemporary escalation of crime and delinquency on a political and psychological level The investigations also offer insights and potential solutions to the problems of drugs gang violence police brutality AIDS and the death penalty Annotation copyright by Book News Inc Portland OR Sociological Abstracts ,2004 CSA Sociological Abstracts abstracts and indexes the international literature in sociology and related disciplines in the social and behavioral sciences The database provides abstracts of journal articles and citations to book reviews drawn from over 1 800 serials publications and also provides abstracts of books book chapters dissertations and conference papers African American Criminological Thought Helen Taylor Greene,Shaun L. Gabbidon,2000-09-15 Examines African American contributions both historical and contemporary to criminological thought Introduction to Criminal Justice Joseph J. Senna,Larry J. Siegel,1996 This text presents criminal justice as a dynamic ever changing field emphasizing how the concepts and processes of criminal justice are constantly evolving It is ideal for those introductory criminal justice courses that emphasize a comprehensive and balanced approach to all three areas of criminal justice as well as theory research and policy issues This text is the ultimate tool for complete student preparation and provides all of the up to date coverage of structural and procedural changes in the criminal justice system that instructors require ultimately helping students understand the critical issues in the field and the impact they have on the system The Myth of a Racist Criminal Justice System William Wilbanks,1987 Social Sciences Index ,1998 Criminal Justice George F.
