Black Racial Attitudes Trends And Complexities:

Black Racial Attitudes Howard Schuman, Shirley Hatchett, 1974 Black Racial Attitudes Howard Schuman, Shirley Hatchett, 1974 Using three attitude sample surveys administered between 1968 and 1971 the authors gather and compile data on African Americans attitudes beliefs and actions Black Americans' Views of Racial Inequality Lee Sigelman, Susan Welch, 1994-05-27 An analysis of black opinions about the sources of their inequality in American society and the appropriate means for redressing this The Oxford Handbook of African American Citizenship, 1865-Present Henry Louis Gates, Jr., 2012-05-24 Collection of essays tracing the historical evolution of African American experiences from the dawn of Reconstruction onward through the perspectives of sociology political science law economics education and psychology As a whole the book is a systematic study of the gap between promise and performance of African Americans since 1865 Over the course of thirty four chapters contributors present a portrait of the particular hurdles faced by African Americans and the distinctive contributions African Americans have made to the development of U S institutions and culture From publisher description Majorities and Minorities John W. Chapman, Alan Wertheimer, 1990-05-01 In this thirty second annual volume in the American Society for Political and Legal Philosophy s NOMOS series entitled Majorities and Minorities thirteen distinguished contributors consider a diverse selection of topics Included are essays on legitimacy of the majority the utilitarian view of majoritarianism majorities and elections pluralism and equality democratic theory and American democracy and majority rules Of Interest to political scientists philosophers and legal scholars this collection brings together a variety of viewpoints Each author is a leading voice within his or her specialized field The Last Half-Century Morris Janowitz, 1978 The Last Half Century represents the culmination of a lifetime of scholarship by Morris Janowitz In this comprehensive and systematic analysis of the major trends in American society during the past fifty years he probes the weakening of popular party affiliations and the increased inability of elected representatives to rule Centering his work on the crucial concept of social control Janowitz orders and assesses a vast amount of empirical research to clarify the failure of basic social institutions to resolve our chronic conflicts For Janowitz social control denotes a society s capacity to regulate itself within a moral framework that transcends simple self interest He poses urgent questions Why has social control been so drastically weakened in our advanced industrial society And what strategies can we use to strengthen it again The explanation rests in part on the changes in social structure which make it more and more complicated for citizens to calculate their political self interest At the same time complex economic and defense problems also strain an already overburdened legislative system making effective responsive political rule increasingly difficult Janowitz concludes by assessing the response of the social sciences to the pressing problem of social control and asserts that new forms of citizen participation in the government must be found Eliminating Racism Phyllis A. Katz, Dalmas A. Taylor, 2013-06-29 The chapters presented here provide the reader with an awareness of the divergent views of what constitutes racism and frameworks for reducing it

This book points out that the dialogue and research on this subject since the mid 1970s have yielded increased controversy over the theories foundation and continued existence of racism Ironically what we viewed in the 1954 Brown decision and the Civil Rights Act of 1964 as the beginning of the end of racism turned out to be the beginning of confusion over the course of action to ensure societal acceptance of political mandates Hence the title of this book captures the essence of the emotional core of any forum for examining racism past and present One of the most controversial forums has been that of education beginning with the U S Supreme Court's 1954 ruling in Brown v Board of Education Behind every event that has spawned controversy is a profile in courage It was not a simple decision for the players in the scenario of the Brown v Board of Education case to step forward and present themselves as evidence of discrimination Black parents supported by black organizations viewed this legal action as a chance for equal opportunity Yet the 1950s were a time when black communities were pained by the thought that bigotry and institutional racism would forever stand in the way of their achieving equality

Intergroup Relations Michael A. Hogg, Dominic Abrams, 2001 This anthology examines Love's Labours Lost from a variety of perspectives and through a wide range of materials Selections discuss the play in terms of historical context dating and sources character analysis comic elements and verbal conceits evidence of authorship performance analysis and feminist interpretations Alongside theater reviews production photographs and critical commentary the volume also includes essays written by practicing theater artists who have worked on the play An index by name literary work and concept rounds out this valuable resource

Black Faces, Black Interests Carol Miller Swain, 1993 In this incisive book Carol Swain explores what strategies are most likely to lead to greater representation of black political interests She studies the constituency relations and roll call voting of black members of Congress from a variety of districts historically black newly black heterogeneous and primarily white and of white members from districts with either a black majority or a significant black minority She challenges the proposition that only African Americans can represent black interests effectively and argues that blacks must form coalitions with white representatives to serve black needs Swain has updated this edition with a new chapter entitled Black Congressional Representation since 1992
