Black Series Laurie Sheck, 2003 In and Out of Africa Joanna Boampong, 2012-11-30 New areas of intellectual endeavours including postcolonial transatlantic global and cultural studies have facilitated conversations that cut across traditional academic boundaries Indeed aside from precipitating more stimulating intellectual dialogues the advent of multi disciplinarity has also enabled literary and cultural theorists critics students and teachers to connect and to integrate diverse academic disciplines and schools of thought in the pursuit of a common task Of the many areas that have benefited from this trend it is perhaps in the realm of Afro Hispanic Luso Brazilian and Latin American studies that one notices a vibrant conversation that deals with the deep historical social economic and political bonds that have connected and still connect Africa to the Hispanic and Luso Brazilian worlds As these bonds acquire profound meanings in the late 20th and early 21st centuries scholars from diverse academic backgrounds find new ways to explore these connections It is in the spirit of this endeavour that the creative artists scholars of cultural and literary theory and critics whose works are presented in this anthology attempt to examine wide ranging themes from colonization slavery imperialism religion music and literature Most of the essays in this collection address long standing issues related to identity construction linguistic legacies religious and cultural beliefs and practices Others confront questions of migration and immigration configurations of female agency and Hispanic pedagogy in Africa and elsewhere What makes this volume unique and interesting is not only the idea of exploring examining and thinking the old in new ways and the new in old ways but also advancing the conversation of the relationship between Africa and the Afro Hispanic Luso Brazilian and Latin American worlds through different intellectual and artistic prisms Child Life ,1901 The Black Beach J. T. Barbarese, 2005 Winner of the Vassar Miller Prize in Poetry 2004 The poems of The Black Beach describe everyday acts like putting children to bed coaching Little League and sending a daughter to school but brood over what may be behind the everyday and how to reach it and talk to it Faith ebbs and flows like the tide on a black beach of heaven while these poems maintain skepticism denying transcendence beyond what is available through love the senses and experience Number Twelve Vassar Miller Prize in Poetry Wanderer: Songs of Solitude, Fragility, and Change Bruce Rimell, 2023-11-16 What do you do when life seems overwhelming the world seems alienating and physical injury has become debilitating For artist and poet Bruce Rimell the answer was to turn away from the world and to seek solace in landscape astronomy and poetry Written over a period of four years Wanderer Songs of Solitude Fragility and Change emerged from this challenging time the poetry addresses grief and memory as well as slow burn changes in the course of a human life It mourns the passing of a once cherished friendship stands in sorrow before waterfalls celebrates the passing of the seasons visible in the natural world Framed as a journey across the heavens the collection is interspersed with deeply personal and idiosyncratic hymns to various planets and stars before returning home to Earth Wanderer takes in diverse shifts in identity and lifelong movements through walks in moorlands and the wilds as well as dreams otherworldly encounters at secluded falls and the night sky all sprung from a somewhat hyperactive perspective A free verse diary of some dark and difficult days punctuated with shards of light Wanderer takes the reader through a time of lost illusions but a magical journey nonetheless Sometimes sorrow is as beautiful as joy this collection seeks out exactly that kind of beauty

Tonning,2017-03-30 This book is the first sustained examination of Samuel Beckett's pivotal engagements with post war BBC radio. The BBC acted as a key interpreter and promoter of Beckett's work during this crucial period of his getting known in the Anglophone world in the 1950s and 1960s especially through the culturally ambitious Third Programme but also by the intermediary of the house magazine The Listener. The BBC ensured a sizeable but also informed reception for Beckett's radio plays and various adaptations including his stage plays, prose and even poetry. The audience that Beckett's works reached by radio almost certainly exceeded in size his readership or theatre audiences at the time. In rethinking several key aspects of his relationship with the BBC, a mix of new and familiar Beckett critics take as their starting point the previously neglected BBC radio archives held at the Written Archive Centre in Caversham, Berkshire. The results of this extended reassessment are timely and in many cases quite surprising for readers of Beckett and for scholars of radio, late modernism and post war British culture more broadly.
