The person is positioned in the lower center of the frame, with the globe they stand on also centered. ## Bring Bring And Other Stories:

As Birds Bring Forth the Sun and Other Stories Alistair MacLeod, 2010-12-10 The superbly crafted stories collected in Alistair MacLeod's As Birds Bring Forth the Sun and Other Stories depict men and women acting out their own peculiar mortality against the haunting landscape of Cape Breton Island. In a voice at once elegiac and life-affirming, MacLeod describes a vital present inhabited by the unquiet spirits of a Highland past, invoking memory and myth to celebrate the continuity of the generations even in the midst of unremitting change. His second collection, As Birds Bring Forth the Sun and Other Stories, confirms MacLeod's international reputation as a storyteller of rare talent and inspiration.

Nobody Knows what the Stork Will Bring, and Other Stories Charles Criswell, 1958     The Sacred Door and Other Stories Juliana Makuchi Abbenyi-Nfah, 2007-12-01 The Sacred Door and Other Stories Cameroon Folktales of the Beba offers readers a selection of folktales infused with riddles, proverbs, songs, myths, and legends, using various narrative techniques that capture the vibrancy of Beba oral traditions. Makuchi retells the stories that she heard at home when she was growing up in her native Cameroon. The collection of thirty-four folktales of the Beba showcases a wide variety of stories that capture the richness and complexities of an agrarian society's oral literature and traditions. Revenge, greed, and deception are among the themes that frame the story lines in both new and familiar ways. In the title story, a poor man finds himself elevated to king. The condition for his continued success is that he not open the sacred door. This tale of temptation, similar to the story of Pandora's box, concludes with the question: What would you have done? Makuchi relates the stories her mother told her so that readers can make connections between African and North American oral narrative traditions. These tales reinforce the commonalities of our human experiences without discounting our differences.
