Bring Down The Walls Lebanon's Postwar Challenge:

Bring Down the Walls C. Dagher, 2002-01-04 Lebanon is more than a country it is a message these words of Pope John Paul II illustrate Lebanon's post war endeavor to preserve its age old Christian Muslim coexistence and power sharing formula and to invalidate Samuel Huntington's assumption of a Clash of Civilizations Lebanon's current challenge is also the challenge of a whole region the Middle East where the fate of minorities including Eastern Christians reveals the prospects of democracy pluralism and political participation Carole H Dagher a journalist for Lebanese media as well as an academic presents an insightful account on how Christian and Muslim communities emerged from the sixteen year old Lebanese war what their points of friction and their common grounds are and what the prospects of Lebanon's communal representation system and pluralistic society are She describes the central role played by the Holy See and John Paul II in bridging the gap between Christians and Muslims in Lebanon and analyzes the impact other countries such as Syria Iran and Saudi Arabia have had on the power game and conversely the impact of Christian Muslim interaction on the future of the Arab Israeli peace process Bring Down the Walls draws crucial lessons from the recent history of Christian Muslim relations in Lebanon

Bring Down the Walls Carole Dagher, 2001 Democratisation and Power-Sharing in Stormy Weather Tamirace Fakhoury Mühlbacher, 2009-11-14 Is democracy possible only in homogeneous societies Does heterogeneity include a stable democracy Throughout history ethnic linguistic or religious homogeneity whether by circumstance coercion or choice has seemingly been conducive to democracy In France democracy was established after the imposition of religious uniformity and the revocation of the Edict of Nantes The United States pulled in immigrants who renounced their original affiliations to forge a new identity in a newly born state Still defying assumptions democracies have emerged in heterogeneous states such as the Swiss Confederation the Successor States of the Holy Roman Empire and later those carved out of the previous colonial empires One common feature is the failure of often violent attempts to enforce homogeneity or the lack of any such attempt in the first place In the course of time these divided societies have learned to live in diversity to pacify their differences and to find a path towards peace or at least accommodation In sum they went beyond forms of separating powers to sharing power Whether defined by ethnicity language religion or even ideology communities agreed to a pact on participating in a joint government based on proportional or even equal representation It is noteworthy that political systems based on power sharing were long marginal in mainstream political science which laid an emphasis on democratic transitions in homogeneous societies and on socio economic or cultural prerequisites that facilitate the rise of democracy

Architecture, Power and Religion in Lebanon Ward Vloeberghs, 2015-11-24 In Architecture Power and Religion in Lebanon Ward Vloeberghs explores Rafiq Hariri's patronage and his posthumous legacy to demonstrate how religious architecture becomes a site for power struggles in contemporary Beirut By tracing the 150 year long history of the Muhammad al Amin Mosque Lebanon's principal Sunni mosque and the subsequent development of the site as a commemoration venue this account offers a unique illustration of how architecture religion and power become discursively and visually entangled Set in a multi confessional society marked by social inequalities and political fragmentation this interdisciplinary study analyses how architectural practice and urban reconfigurations reveal a nascent personality cult communal mourning and the consolidation of political territory in relation to constantly shifting circumstances The Lebanese Forces Nader Moumneh,2018-12-19 In this book author Nader Moumneh a Canadian senior policy adviser of Lebanese descent examines the research of the formation and evolution of the Christian resistance in Lebanon he performed as a graduate student at the American University of Beirut in the early 1990s He has conducted hundreds of lengthy interviews with senior Lebanese Forces leaders who were thoroughly impressed by his communicative yet assertive personality his scrupulous presentation of facts his obsessive attention to detail and most importantly his unwavering determination to unveil behind the scenes events Mr Moumneh drew upon his self acquired persuasion tactics and negotiation strategies to earn the Lebanese Forces trust and gain access to top secret never before published information Since then he has continually revised and expanded the manuscript to address the rapidly changing situation in Lebanon and the Middle East The Lebanese Forces Emergence and Transformation of the Christian Resistance has taken twenty five years to produce and is unique in its own right Mr Moumneh s work is not a typical re telling of the Lebanese crisis rather it is a magnificent blend of skillful craftsmanship an unprecedented wealth of painstakingly referenced chronological research and now declassified intelligence information Bring Down the Walls Carole H. Dagher,2000 Lebanon is more than a country it is a message these words of Pope John Paul II illustrate Lebanon s post war endeavor to preserve its age old Christian Muslim coexistence and power sharing formula and to invalidate Samuel Huntington s assumption of a clash of civilizations
