

The background of the cover is a painting in a style reminiscent of the Cretan School. It depicts a group of about seven men in a village setting. The men are dressed in dark, simple clothing, and some wear caps. They are gathered together, looking in various directions. In the background, there are several buildings with light-colored walls and dark roofs. One building on the right has a flag flying from a pole. The overall color palette is dominated by earthy tones like ochre, brown, and dark blue, with a slightly somber and historical atmosphere.

Britain And The Revolt In Cyprus 1954 1959:

Britain and the Revolt in Cyprus, 1954-1959 Robert F. Holland, 1998-11-26 This is the first in depth reconstruction of a major British decolonization based fully on original documentation Charting the inner history of a violent colonial Emergency it provides a case study of the dilemmas posed by the challenge of terrorism overseas after 1945 Robert Holland analyses the evolution of a political settlement which almost uniquely in the British end of empire slid beyond the United Kingdom's control He considers the effects of the revolt on the politics of the surrounding region particularly in relation to the emerging ethnic struggle between Greeks and Turks His work offers a fresh perspective on Mediterranean and Middle Eastern developments including the involvement of NATO and the United States in the age of the Suez Crisis and its aftermath This account is essential reading for anybody interested in the liquidation of the British Empire the breakdown of ethnic co-existence under intense pressure and the effects of regional destabilization on the wider international system Britain and the Revolt in Cyprus, 1954-1959 Robert F. Holland, 1998 Based fully on original documentation this is a reconstruction of a major British decolonization providing a case study of the dilemmas posed by the challenge of terrorism overseas after 1945 and analysing the evolution of a political settlement The Oxford Handbook of Late Colonial

Insurgencies and Counter-Insurgencies Martin Thomas, Gareth Curless, 2023-10-10 The lethality of conflicts between insurgent groups and counter-insurgent security forces has risen markedly since the Second World War just as those of conventional or inter-state wars have declined For several decades conflicts within states rather than between them have been the prevalent form of organised political violence worldwide Recent conflicts in Afghanistan Iraq and Syria have fired interest in colonial experiences of rebellion while current western interventions in sub-Saharan Africa have prompted accusations of militarist humanitarianism Yet despite mounting interest in counter-insurgency and empire comparative investigation of colonial responses to insurrection and civil disorder is sparse Some scholars have written of a golden age of counter-insurgency which began with Britain's declaration of a Malayan Emergency in 1948 and ended with the withdrawal of US ground troops from Vietnam in 1973 It is with this period if not with any presumed golden age that this volume is concerned This Handbook connects ideas about contested decolonization and the insurgencies that inspired it with an analysis of patterns and singularities in the conflicts that precipitated the collapse of overseas empires It attempts a systematic study of the global effects of organized anti-colonial violence in Asia and Africa The objective is to reconceptualize late colonial violence in the European overseas empires by exploring its distinctive character and the globalizing processes underpinning it Reader's Guide to Military History Charles Messenger, 2013-10-31 This book contains some 600

entries on a range of topics from ancient Chinese warfare to late 20th century intervention operations Designed for a wide variety of users it encompasses general reviews of aspects of military organization and science as well as specific wars and conflicts The book examines naval and air warfare as well as significant individuals including commanders theorists and war leaders Each entry includes a listing of additional publications on the topic accompanied by an article discussing these publications with reference to their particular emphases strengths and limitations

International Diplomacy and Colonial Retreat Kent Fedorowich, Martin Thomas, 2001 The problems investigated in this collection had lasting consequences not only in the field of colonialism but in international politics as well Decolonization and the Cold War which brought about the most significant changes to global politics after 1945 are treated together

Paths of Innovation in Warfare Nicholas Michael Sambaluk, 2018-04-20 Innovation shapes wars and twelve studies by former faculty members of West Point's United States Military Academy examine specific cases of past and present military innovation The complex competitive and dynamic environment that defines war drives combatants to seek solutions to potentially lethal problems As some solutions prove effective gain traction and win emulation they follow a path of innovation The chapters address a broad array of innovations including in weapon technology strategy research and development philosophy organization of the military instrument and leveraging maps for strategic goals Geographically the examples in this volume span four continents and the Mediterranean Sea and chronologically they proceed from the twelfth century to the twenty first Collectively the studies point to the interconnected value of pursuing constructive solutions to challenges networking interdisciplinary forms of knowledge appropriately balancing expectations and capabilities and understanding an innovation as a journey rather than as an episodic event

Defending the realm? Aaron Edwards, 2018-02-28 Britain is often revered for its extensive experience of waging small wars Its long imperial history is littered with high profile counter insurgency campaigns thus marking it out as the world's most seasoned practitioner of this type of warfare This is the first book to detail the tactical and operational dynamics of Britain's small wars arguing that the military's use of force was more heavily constrained by wider strategic and political considerations than previously admitted Outlining the civil military strategy followed by the British in Palestine Malaya Kenya Cyprus Aden Northern Ireland Iraq and Afghanistan Defending the realm argues that Britain's small wars since 1945 were fought against the backdrop of an irrevocable decline in British power Written from a theoretically informed perspective grounded in rich archival sources oral testimonies and a revisionist reading of the literature on counter insurgency and counter terrorism this is the definitive account of the politics of Britain's small wars

Western Thoughts on Counterinsurgency Federica Saini Fasanotti, 2025-11-17 Focusing on the diverse experiences of modern Western counterinsurgency thinking this book brings together in one volume the important testimonies on the counterinsurgency doctrine COIN its development over the centuries from the late 17th century to the present The volume is divided into four parts Unit I serves as a framework for some of the types of conflict in which guerrilla warfare has manifested over the centuries Unit II deals with the protagonists of the Western doctrine those who have written about it from the late 17th century to the present Unit III is designed to delve into the most important tactical strategic elements for those about to counter an insurgency Unit IV is dedicated to the real protagonists of small wars to what their role was and is in the dynamics of irregular wars Western Thoughts of Counterinsurgency From 17th Century to the Present will be of interest to both undergraduate and postgraduate students and can be used in courses of geopolitics military history and in the military academies

Great Power Politics in Cyprus Michalēs Kontos,Nikos Panayiotides,Sozos-Christos Theodoulou,Haralambos Alexandrou,2014 This volume approaches foreign interventions in Cyprus from two different angles a vertical angle which corresponds to a case by case historical analysis of foreign interventions which have taken place throughout the modern history of Cyprus and a horizontal angle which corresponds to the implementation of systemic models of analysis in approaching foreign interventions in Cyprus Furthermore the volume deals with domestic perceptions formed as a result of foreign interventions in Cyprus focusing particularly on their impact on the politics and public rhetoric of the Cyprus problem especially as regards the Greek Cypriot community

The Conservative Government and the End of Empire 1957-1964: Economics, international relations, and the commonwealth Ronald Hyam,William Roger Louis,2000 This volume represents the first in depth treatment of end of empire during its climactic phase and from it will emerge a closer understanding of the dynamics involved in decolonisation
