Home Francis Pryor, 2014-10-02 In Home Francis Pryor author of The Making of the British Landscape archaeologist and broadcaster takes us on his lifetime's quest to discover the origins of family life in prehistoric Britain Francis Pryor's search for the origins of our island story has been the quest of a lifetime In Home the Time Team expert explores the first nine thousand years of life in Britain from the retreat of the glaciers to the Romans departure Tracing the settlement of domestic communities he shows how archaeology enables us to reconstruct the evolution of habits traditions and customs But this too is Francis Pryor's own story of his passion for unearthing our past from Yorkshire to the west country Lincolnshire to Wales digging in freezing winters arid summers mud and hurricanes through frustrated journeys and euphoric discoveries

Evocative and intimate Home shows how in going about their daily existence our prehistoric ancestors created the institution that remains at the heart of the way we live now the family Under his gaze the land starts to fill with tribes and clans wandering this way and that leaving traces that can still be seen today Pryor feels the land rather than simply knowing it Guardian Former president of the Council for British Archaeology Dr Francis Pryor has spent over thirty years studying our prehistory He has excavated sites as diverse as Bronze Age farms field systems and entire Iron Age villages He appears frequently on TV's Time Team and is the author of The Making of the British Landscape Seahenge as well as Britain BC and Britain AD both of which he adapted and presented as Channel 4 series

James Joyce and Photography Georgina Binnie-Wright, 2022-05-19 James Joyce and Photography is the first book to explore in depth James Joyce's personal and professional engagement with photography Photographs photographic devices and photographically inspired techniques appear throughout Joyce's work from his narrator's furtive proto photographic framing in Silhouettes c 1897 to the aggressively minded Tulloch Turnbull girl with her coldblood kodak in Finnegans Wake 1939 Through an exploration of Joyce's manuscripts and photographic and newspaper archival material as well as the full range of his major works this book sheds new light on his sustained interest in this visual medium This project takes Joyce's intention in Dubliners 1914 to betray the soul of that hemiplegia or paralysis which many consider a city as key to his interaction with photography which in his literature occupies a dual position between stasis and innovation
