Recall of MPs draft bill Great Britain: Cabinet Office,2011-12-13 The public will be given the right to recall their local MP if they are found to have engaged in serious wrongdoing under proposals announced in Recall of MPs Draft Bill ISBN 9780101824125 Cm 8241 published today The proposals fulfil a commitment made in the Programme for Government as part of the political reform agenda In the draft Bill the Government is proposing to introduce a power of recall allowing voters to force a by election having had a petition signed by 10% of his or her constituents At the last general election the manifestos of all three of the main parties included a commitment to establish a recall mechanism The draft Bill is being published for pre legislative scrutiny and sets out two triggers for a recall petition firstly where an MP is convicted in the UK of an offence and receives a custodial sentence of 12 months or less and secondly where the House of Commons resolves through a vote by MPs that a recall petition should be opened The first trigger will close a gap in the existing legislation whereby MPs are only disqualified if they receive a custodial sentence of more than 12 months The second trigger is an additional disciplinary power for the House of Commons which for the first time allows constituents to have their say in deciding whether their MP should stay in office The petition will be administered by the local returning officer and will be open for a period of 8 weeks If 10% of eligible constituents sign the petition the MP s seat will be vacated and a by election will be held Recall of MPs Great Britain. Parliament. House of Commons. Political and Constitutional Reform Committee,2012 The Government published a draft Bill on the Recall of MPs with the aim of restoring faith in the political process after the expenses scandal But the restricted form of recall proposed could reduce public confidence in politics by creating expectations that are not fulfilled Under the Government s proposals constituents themselves would not be able to initiate a recall petition Furthermore the circumstances that the Government proposes would trigger a recall petition are so narrow that recall petitions would seldom if ever take place The Committee believes that the new House of Commons Committee on Standards which will include lay members already has the sanctions it needs to deal with MPs who are guilty of misconduct including recommending the ultimate sanction of expulsion from the House of Commons in cases of serious wrongdoing The Committee argues that the option of expulsion must be actively considered and that the House must be prepared to act The Committee recommends that the Government replace the requirement for a single designated location for signing the recall petition with a requirement for multiple locations that people with an existing postal vote should automatically be sent a postal signature sheet in the event of a recall petition that constituents in Northern Ireland should have the same options for signing a recall petition as constituents elsewhere in the UK rather than being restricted to signing by post The British Columbia Gazette British Columbia,1959 Journals of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of British Columbia British Columbia. Legislative Assembly,1883 Manitoba Law Journal: Underneath the Golden Boy 2019 Volume 42(1) Bryan P. Schwartz, et al., Underneath the Golden Boy series of the Manitoba Law Journal reports on developments in legislation and on parliamentary and democratic reform in Manitoba Canada and beyond This issue has articles from a variety of contributing authors including Darcy L MacPherson Brian Bird Andrew Flavelle Martin Brendan Roziere Dren Maloku Kasia Kieloch Nichole Mirwaldt Allison Fehr and Jennifer Sokal The Politics of Recall Elections Yanina Welp, Laurence Whitehead, 2020-02-27 This edited volume presents the first comprehensive analysis of recall processes which have spread globally since the end of the Cold War and which are now re configuring the political dynamics of electoral democracy Drawing on the expertise of country experts the book provides a coherent and theoretically informed framework for mapping and evaluating this fast evolving phenomenon While the existing literature on the subject has so far focused on isolated single country studies the collection brings recall experiments to centre stage as it relates them to current crises in the traditional variants of representative democracy It explains why the spread of recall innovations is set to continue and to pass a threshold from inattention to urgent engagement The authors further provide original insights into the rationale for recall as well as guidance on minimising the accompanying risks Canadian Mining Journal ,1919 Forcing Choice J. Patrick Boyer, 2017-10-21 Direct voting on key issues is a measure of society s democratic maturity Forcing choice says Patrick Boyer shows that a nation respects the judgment of its people and that its government is prepared to heed their will and it can strengthen the bond that unites a country But just as a general election a referendum can be risky business The Canadian Mining Journal Benjamin Taylor A.
