Circumnavigation Journal:

Byron's Journal of his Circumnavigation, 1764-1766 Robert E. Gallagher,2017-05-15 In 1764 the Hon John Byron was commissioned by the Admiralty to sail to the South Atlantic to search for Pepys s Island and the Southern Continent He was then to continue into the Pacific itself and look for a possible North west passage Although he rediscovered the Falkland Islands it was after the French had done so under Bougainville and he made no attempt to search for a North west passage at all but sailed straight on round the world making no discoveries of any importance The journal which Byron kept during his voyage has been edited and annotated by Dr Gallagher In his Introduction he describes earlier voyages of a similar nature and sketches the background to this voyage He assesses Byron s achievement and considers why he disobeyed his orders Apart from the Journal the Admiralty s secret instructions to Byron are also printed here as well as Byron s letter to the Admiralty explaining why he was sailing straight on There is an appendix by Dr Helen Wallis on the Patagonian giants This is a new print on demand hardback edition of the volume first published in 1964 Byron's Journal of His Circumnavigation, 1764-1766 Robert E. Gallagher,2011 The voyage of the Dolphin Includes the secret instructions by the Admiralty a list of the crew and transcripts of documents relating to the voyage The appendix on the Patagonians includes The Patagonian giants by Helen Wallis This is a new print on demand hardback edition of the volume first published in 1964 Byron's Journal of His Circumnavigation John Byron,1990 Asia in the Making of Europe Donald Frederick Lach,1965 First systematic inclusive study of the impact of the high civilizations of Asia on the development of modern Western civilization

[With a Portrait and Maps.] John BYRON (Hon.),1964 Asia in the Making of Europe, Volume III: A Century of Advance. Book 1 Donald F. Lach,Edwin J. Van Kley,2022-07-01 This monumental series acclaimed as a masterpiece of comprehensive scholarship in the New York Times Book Review reveals the impact of Asia s high civilizations on the development of modern Western society The authors examine the ways in which European encounters with Asia have altered the development of Western society art literature science and religion since the Renaissance In Volume III A Century of Advance the authors have researched seventeenth century European writings on Asia in an effort to understand how contemporaries saw Asian societies and peoples Trip Around the World Linda Lane Thornton,2015-04-29 During a 5 year circumnavigation in a 35 foot sailing boat Linda Lane Thornton completed a journal quilt for each month of the voyage This book is about the quilts and the stories behind them Journal of the Alleda Philip Corridan,2020-06-26 Enjoyed this book very much Quite different to most of the sailing books I ve read A very frank story told with determination to complete an incredible journey Reader in USA 2020 In the broad world of sailing few sailors ever venture to sea and fewer of these ever complete a circumnavigation of the world of which few write about their voyage Here is one such voyage conducted by a weekend sailor in an ageing catamaran quite modestly The writing is engaging without being dramatic as the author lets the story speak for itself In the end I found it a very enjoyable read even the second time around This is a sailing yarn with many of the elements that made Hiscock Pardy and Smeeton so well regarded Readable to both kinds of people those that sail and those that don't Reader in Australia 2016 Solo circumnavigation with your standard British humor One of the better cruising books on the market Totally relatable in many respects Reader in USA 2020 A great read for any catamaran owner planning a cruising adventure In one of the first production catamarans built Philip shows just what can be accomplished with good planning and seamanship in a boat not designed for the task Highly recommended An interesting read Not a cruising log Reader in Australia 2017 The Nautical Magazine and Journal of the Royal Naval Reserve, 1892 The Geographical Journal, 1926 Includes the Proceedings of the Royal Geographical Society formerly published separately Navigating by the Southern Cross Kenneth Morgan, 2021-01-28 In this comprehensive study Kenneth Morgan provides an authoritative account of European exploration and discovery in Australia The book presents a detailed chronological overview of European interests in the Australian continent from initial speculations about the Great Southern Land to the major hydrographic expeditions of the 19th century In particular he analyses the early crossings of the Dutch in the 17th century the exploits of English buccaneer adventurer William Dampier the famous voyages of James Cook and Matthew Flinders and the little known French annexation of Australia in 1772 Introducing new findings and drawing on the latest in historiographical research this book situates developments in navigation nautical astronomy and cartography within the broader contexts of imperial colonial and maritime history The Journals of Captain James Cook on His Voyages of Discovery ...: The voyage of the Endeavor, 1768-1771 James Cook, 1968 Byron's Journal of His Circumnavigation, 1768-1766. were greeted as heroes Then six months later another even more decrepit craft landed on the coast of Chile This boat contained just three castaways and they had a very different story to tell The thirty sailors who landed in Brazil were not heroes they were mutineers The first group responded with counter charges of their own of a tyrannical and murderous captain and his henchmen While stranded on the island the crew had fallen into anarchy with warring factions fighting for dominion over the barren wilderness As accusations of treachery and murder flew the Admiralty convened a court martial to determine who was telling the truth The stakes were life and death for whomever the court found guilty could hang
