Circumstances Chance In The Literary Text:

Circumstances David F. Bell,1993-01-01 Theorizing Narrativity John Pier,José Angel García Landa,2008 Offers perspectives on the nature of narrative and narrativity genre theory narrative semiotics and communication theory This book includes contributions which center on the specificity of literary fiction and the chapters investigate a different dimension of narrativity with many issues dealt with in innovative ways Circumstantial Shakespeare Lorna Hutson,2015 Contrary to the view that Shakespeare was careless with plot details Circumstantial Shakespeare reveals how he actually used circumstance to imply offstage actions times and places in terms of the motives and desires of his characters thus creating coherent dramatic worlds and a sense of the feelings of characters inhabiting them Literature and Science ,2023-12-14 Taking as a starting point the embeddedness of all disciplinary and interdisciplinary inquiry since interdisciplinarity is itself not a unitary phenomenon but encompasses many different knowledge practices embedded in widely differing political economic and ideological constituencies the essays in this volume explore in different ways some of the conversations currently taking place across disciplinary boundaries in the exciting new field of literature and science Like literature science is seen as a site of competing ideological constructions as a complex and richly ambiguous element of modern and postmodern social discourse circulating in a wider cultural community where its currency fluctuates according to complex changes in social and epistemic conditions including the relative prestige or cultural capital of science or literature within professional and disciplinary hierarchies at any given time By Accident Or Design Paul Fyfe,2015 On the banks of the Thames it is a tremendous chapter of accidents As Henry James surveys London in 1888 he sums up what had fascinated urban observers for a century the random and even accidental development of this unprecedented form of human settlement the modern metropolis By Accident or Design Writing the Victorian Metropolis takes James at his word arguing that accident was both a powerful metaphor and material context through which the Victorians arrested the paradoxes of metropolitan modernity and reconfigured understandings of form and change Paul Fyfe shows how the material conditions of urban accidents offer new and compelling modes of analysis for intellectual and literary history Through extensive archival study and interdisciplinary analysis of urban industrial accidents risk management and civic improvements By Accident or Design reclaims the metropolis as ground zero for some of the most important thinking about causation in the nineteenth century It demonstrates the centrality of interdependent concepts of design and accident not only to metropolitan discourse but also to current critical discourse about the formal and circulatory dynamics of Victorian metropolitan writing Thus this book offers a new vocabulary for the dialectics of the modern city and the signature forms of writing about it including the newspaper the illustrated periodical the industrial novel and urban broadsheets Jews, Writing and the Dynamics of Literary Affiliation, 1880-1940. Sarah Alisa Braun,2007 □□□□□□ ,1996 HOW TO ACQUIRE BOOKS LISTED IN CURRENT CONTENTS ,1996 Heterologies Michel de Certeau,1986 A collection of numerous essays drawn from de Certeau s writings Heterologies illustrates the diverse concerns that inform his work Each essay examines and questions the bases surrounding contemporary reorganization Studies in Short Fiction ,1993 Critical Survey of Long Fiction: V.S. Pritchett-August Strindberg ,2000 The Romantic Movement David V. Erdman,1994 Anglistentag 2002 Bayreuth Ewald Mengel,Hans-Jörg Schmid,Michael Steppat,2003 After Poststructuralism Nancy Easterlin,Barbara Riebling,1993 After Poststructuralism Interdisciplinary and Literary Theory challenges the premises of and suggests new alternatives to the more extreme approaches in current literary theory The essays collected here examine the trend of theorizing in interdisciplinary studies from the perspective of more rigorous research methodologies with the aim of establishing the validity of interdisciplinary literary studies and broadening the field of inquiry The collection is divided into three groups The first examines the question of what interdisciplinarity has meant in literary studies in the last twenty years the reasons for its ascension as a trend and the inherent theoretical flaws in certain poststructuralist positions The second explores the relationship of theory and practice while the third group looks ahead to the rich possibilities for thinking and working in practical new directions The High Stakes of Identity Ian M. Helfant,2002 Revising his doctoral dissertation for Harvard University Helfant Russian Colgate U explains how Russian writers of the 19th century not only used gambling as motifs in their work but were often impacted by it in their own lives for example Pushkin s huge losses at cards and Dostoevski s at roulette served as impetus for them to write for money but Tolstoy s ancestral wealth cushioned his losses at cards In addition to those three he looks at works by Lermontov Shakhovskoy and Begichev He appends the original texts of all the extended and most of the shorter quotes that are translated from Russian and French in the book Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR Report National Humanities Center (U.S.),1992 Choice ,1993 Twentieth-century Short Story Explication Warren S.
