- ❑ Identify the key words used in the essay that communicate what the examiner is looking for. E.G. COMPARE Discuss the similarities and differences between two or more things. EVALUATE Offer the pros and cons / strengths and weaknesses / Positives & negatives. DESCRIBE This is an analytical essay that requires you to describe something and then present arguments for and against. EXPLAIN Explain the what, where, who, when, why and how. You may also be required to list the pros and cons. JUSTIFY Identify why or how something has happened, or justify your position on something.
- ❑ Follow the instructions to the essay question carefully. This will help to determine what you MUST include as a minimum in your answer.
- ❑ Take a moment to plan how you will organise the response to the essay question (jot down some notes, key facts, examples and key terms.)
- ❑ A strong essay should include relevant information whilst demonstrating strong subject knowledge and use of examples and case studies.
- ❑ Begin and end the essay by rephrasing the wording of the question to formulate the start and end of your essay.
- ❑ Write in paragraphs and in PEEL format. If you are seriously running out of time bullet point arguments.

TO DO WELL IN EXAMS YOU MUST START EARLY AND PERSIST!

- ✓ Stop and take a 5 min break if you get too stressed
