Cities In Our Future Environmental Health And Social Equality:

Cities in Our Future, 1998 Cities in Our Future Robert Geddes, 1997 In Cities in Our Future case studies of five North American metropolitan areas New York Toronto Cascadia Vancouver Seattle Portland Mexico City and Los Angeles are presented with in depth analyses of their physical terrain design planning and development Contributors discuss problems that the cities have experienced how those problems have been handled and strategies for avoiding or managing similar problems in the future

Healthy Cities Namir Khan, Willem H. Vanderburg, 2001 Modern cities can be designed to constitute a more supportive environment for a great many activities provide a more livable habitat and reduce the burden imposed on the biosphere They can be made healthier in terms of the definition by World Health Organization and more sustainable by means of new and emerging preventive approaches Healthy Cities focuses on those preventive approaches that can make cities healthier and more sustainable This book as well as the two companion volumes Sustainable Energy and Sustainable Production is the result of a twelve year research project carried out at the Center for Technology and Social Development at the University of Toronto The research findings led to the development of a new conceptual framework and strategy aimed at converting technological and economic growth into development that would gradually become more sustainable

Making Smart Cities More Playable Anton Nijholt, 2019-07-23 This book explores the ways in which the broad range of technologies that make up the smart city infrastructure can be harnessed to incorporate more playfulness into the day to day activities that take place within smart cities making them not only more efficient but also more enjoyable for the people who live and work within their confines The book addresses various topics that will be of interest to playable cities stakeholders including the human computer interaction and game designer communities computer scientists researching sensor and actuator technology in public spaces urban designers and hopefully urban policymakers This is a follow up to another book on Playable Cities edited by Anton Nijholt and published in 2017 in the same book series Gaming Media and Social Effects

The Handbook of Salutogenesis Maurice B. Mittelmark, Shifra Sagy, Monica Eriksson, Georg F. Bauer, Jürgen M. Pelikan, Bengt Lindström, Geir Arild Espnes, 2016-09-02 This in depth survey of salutogenesis shows the breadth and strengths of this innovative perspective on health promotion health care and wellness Background and historical chapters trace the development of the salutogenic model of health and flesh out the central concepts most notably generalized resistance resources and the sense of coherence that differentiate it from pathogenesis From there experts describe a range of real world applications within and outside health contexts from positive psychology to geriatrics from small towns to corrections facilities and from school and workplace to professional training Perspectives from scholars publishing in languages other than English show the global relevance of the field Among the topics in the Handbook Emerging ideas relevant to the salutogenic model of health Specific resistance resources in the salutogenic model of health The sense of coherence and its measurement The application of salutogenesis in communities and neighborhoods The application of salutogenesis to health development in youth with chronic conditions The application of salutogenesis in mental health care settings The Handbook of Salutogenesis summarizes an increasingly salient field for graduate and professional students of public health nursing psychology and medicine and for their instructors It will also appeal to health related academicians and professionals who wish to have a thorough grounding in the topic Yearbook of Science and the Future ,1999 APEC Economic Committee Symposium on the Impact of Expanding Population and Economic Growth on Food, Energy, and the Environment : Saskatoon, Saskatchewan, Canada, September 1997 : Symposium Proceedings Dan Ciuriak,1998 Our Cities, Our Future Charles Price,Agis D.
