International Handbook of Inter-religious Education Kath Engebretson, Marian de Souza, Gloria Durka, Liam Gearon, 2010-08-17 This Handbook is based on the conviction of its editors and contributing authors that understanding and acceptance of as well as collaboration between religions has essential educational value The development of this Handbook rests on the further assumption that interreligious education has an important role in elucidating the global demand for human rights justice and peace Interreligious education reveals that the creeds and holy books of the world's religions teach about spiritual systems that reject violence and the individualistic pursuit of economic and political gain and call their followers to compassion for every human being It also seeks to lead students to an awareness that the followers of religions across the world need to be and to grow in dialogical relationships of respect and understanding An essential aim of interreligious education is the promotion of understanding and engagement between people of different religions and therefore it has great potential to contribute to the common good of the global community Interreligious education has grown from the interfaith movement whose beginning is usually identified with the World Parliament of Religions held in Chicago in 1893 This was the first time in history that leaders of the eastern and western religions had come together for dialogue and to consider working together for global unity

International Handbook of the Religious, Moral and Spiritual Dimensions in Education Marian de Souza, Gloria Durka, Kathleen Engebretson, Robert Jackson, Andrew McGrady, 2007-06-04 Traditionally spirituality has resided and been contained within religious frameworks but while the links between the two areas are still acknowledged by many in the contemporary world spirituality is perceived by some as an aspect of human life that is distinct from religion. Consequently many are searching for meaning within and without religious traditions today and seeking answers to ethical and moral questions that have been generated by the knowledge and technological explosion. One outcome is the renewed interest in the religious, spiritual and moral dimensions of education throughout the life cycle. This International Handbook presents the research and professional practice of scholars who are daily engaged in the consideration of these dimensions in education. The result is a collection of essays which reflects the discipline in all of its internationality as it is today. Embedded within the chapters is also an agenda for the future where the religious, moral and spiritual dimensions in education are proposed as an exciting and challenging way forward for educators at all levels in society. As well it offers a vision for the emergence of a peaceful and just world.

Dialogue and Conflict on Religion. Studies of Classroom Interaction in European Countries Ina ter Avest, Dan-Paul Jozsa, Thorsten Knauth, Javier Rosón, Geir Skeie, 2009

Regarding teaching about religions and worldviews there is a gap between the ambitions of educational policies and our knowledge about what really happens in the classroom. Research on classroom interaction about religion is not very far developed either nationally or as international and as comparative research. There is a growing awareness however that research on pupils' perspectives on religion in education is needed in order to develop sustainable approaches for future education and this book is a contribution to this research. The classroom can be seen as an arena both for learning and for micro politics. This arena is shaped and sometimes challenged and restricted or even curtailed by the wider societal and political context. In this book we present studies of classroom interaction that focus on the micro sociological level of research. The studies presented open up a rather unexplored field of international comparative research on religion in education and the role of diversity for classroom interaction giving deeper insights into what happens in classrooms displaying varieties of interactive patterns and relating these to their specific contexts.
