

Calculation and Adjustment of Interest in Civil Litigation (Rule of Appropriation of Interest)

Case Law- Gurpreet Singh V. Union of India

(on paragraph 43)

Thus, on the whole, we are satisfied that the essential ratio in the Prem Nath Kapur (supra) on appropriation being at different stages is justified though if at a particular stage there is a shortfall, the awardee decree holder would be entitled to appropriate the same on the general principle of appropriation, first towards interest, then towards costs and then towards the principal, unless, of course, the deposit is indicated to be towards specified heads by the judgment debtor while making the deposit intimating the decree-holder of his intention. We, thus, approve the ratio of Prem Nath Kapur (supra) on the aspect of appropriation.

Civil Litigation Case Study Janis L. Walter,2008-05 Our Case Studies CD ROM Series was designed to give students an opportunity to learn by doing Most textbook case scenarios are usually brief and only give pieces of the whole case Actual case files with the court typically contain issues too complicated for beginning students the documents are too lengthy or they are often incomplete since discovery devices are not filed with the court Instructors can create their own cases but it is often a burden because of the time commitment With this series the work is done for them Each CD ROM contains a case file a series of documents that would be found in a litigation criminal law or family law file Documents will be included in their entirety instead of as abbreviated versions The student will therefore be involved in working on an entire case and not just parts of a case Each case will be simplistic to appeal to the beginning student but will still be realistic An extensive list of assignments is provided for the instructor to select from None of the cases are state or time specific so they can be used in any jurisdiction at any time With these CDs the student will be able to analyze cases while producing legal documents and preparing legal research just as paralegals do in actual law offices By completing these exercises a paralegal can develop the practical skills necessary to function as a valuable and effective member of a legal team Mosley v Okeedoke Involves a civil action brought by a couple who claim that one of them sustained injuries allegedly from taking an over the counter dietary supplement Claims against the defendant the manufacturer of the supplement include negligence product liability strict liability and breach of warranty 30 Indonesian Civil Registration Case Studies ,2006 LPC Case Study Michelle Robson,Tim Clarke,1997 Commentaries on the Law of Evidence in Civil Cases Burr W.
