Civilizing The West:

Civilizing the West A.A. den Otter, 1982 Alexander Tilloch Galt son of John Galt and Elizabeth Tilloch was born in 1817 in London England His family immigrated to Canada in 1828 He married Elliott Torrance daughter John Torrance in 1848 She died in 1850 after giving birth to their only son Elliott He married her sister Amy Gordon Torrance and they had nine children He and his son Elliott Torrance Galt co founded the city of Lethbridge Alberta in 1883 Civilization in the West Mark A. Kishlansky, Patrick J. Geary, Patricia O'Brien, 2010 For more than 60 years instructors and their students have looked to Penguin trade paperbacks for state of the art scholarship accessibility and fair prices Pearson Longman Penguin's sister company aims to meet those same expectations with textbooks in our Penguin Academics Series We've created the Penguin Academics Series with ease of use in mind the books are conveniently portable and highly readable with engaging typefaces and interior designs Concise yet thorough in their coverage of the basics Penguin Academics titles are ideal for use either by themselves or in combination with other books such as Penguin Classics We made a number of decisions early in the project that we believed contributed to our goal First we were not writing an encyclopedia on Western civilization Information was not to be included in a chapter unless it related to the themes of that chapter There was to be no information for information's sake and each of us was called upon to defend the inclusion of names dates and events whenever we met to critique one another's chapters We found to our surprise that by adhering to the principle that information included must contribute to or illustrate a particular point or dominating theme we provided as much if not more material than books that habitually list names places and dates without any second context Second we were committed to integrating the history of ordinary men and women into our narrative We believe that isolated sections placed at the end of chapters that deal with the experience of women or minority groups in a particular era profoundly distort historical experience We called this technique caboozing and whenever we found ourselves segregating women or families or the masses we stepped back and asked how we might recast our treatment of historical events to account for a diversity of actors How did ordinary men women and children affect the course of historical events How did historical events affect the fabric of daily life for men women and children from all walks of life We tried to rethink critical historical problems of civilization as gendered phenomena To assist us in the endeavor we engaged two reviewers whose sole responsibility was to evaluate our chapters for the integration of those social groups into our discussion We took the same approach to the coverage of central and eastern Europe that we did to women and minorities Even before the epochal events of 1989 that returned this region to the forefront of international attention we realized that in too many textbooks the Slavic world was treated as marginal to the history of Western civilization Thus with the help of a specialist reviewers we worked to integrate more of the history of eastern Europe into our text than is found in most others and to do so in a way that presented the regions their cultures and their institutions as integral rather than peripheral to Western civilization To construct a book that students would want to read we needed to develop fresh ideas about how to involve them with the material how to transform them from passive recipients to active participants We borrowed from computer science the concept of being user friendly We wanted to find ways to stimulate the imagination of the student and the more we experimented with different techniques the more we realized that the most effective way to do this was visually It is not true that contemporary students cannot be taught effectively by the written word it is only true that they cannot be taught as effectively as they can by the combination of words and images the pictorial chapter opens the large number of maps the geographical tours of Europe at certain times in history and the two page special feature essays each with its own illustration

Frontier Women Julie Jeffrey,1979-07-01 The classic history of women on America s frontiers now updated and thoroughly revised FRONTIER WOMEN is an imaginative and graceful account of the extraordinarily diverse contributions of women to the development of the American frontier Author Julie Roy Jeffrey has expanded her original analysis to include the perspectives of African American and Native American women

Civilization in the West Mark Kishlansky,1997-07 Civilization in the West blends social and political history into a fascinating narrative that brings history to life The authors tell a compelling story of Western Civilization that is enhanced by an image based approach The Visual Record chapter opens draw students in by illustrating a dominant theme of the chapter and exploring the dramatic changing contours of the West through standard maps Map Discovery features and Geographical Tours of Europe Discovering Western Civilization Online end of chapter Web site URLs make this the first Western Civilization book to include these resources

The Gendered West Gordon Morris Bakken, Brenda Farrington, 2013-09-13 First Published in 2001 This anthology of western history articles emphasizes the New Western History that emerged in the 1980s and adds to it a heavy dose of legal history a field frequently ignored or misunderstood by the New Western historians From first contact American Indians knew that Europeans did not understand the gendered nature of America Confusion regarding the role of women within tribes and bands continued from first contact well into the late nineteenth century The journal articles that follow give readers a true sense of the gendered West Racial and ethnic heritage played a role in female experience whether Hispanic Japanese or Irish Women's work was part western history but women did not confine themselves to plow handles or brothels Women were very much a part of most occupations or in the process of breaking down barriers of access They worked in the fields for wages as well as for family welfare and prosperity Women demanded access to the professions whether teaching or law accounting or medicine The process of eliminating barriers varied in time and space but the struggle was constant Yet the story of women in polygamous Utah or Idaho was different and an integral part of the fabric of western history Because of their beliefs and practices these women suffered at the hands of the federal government and persevered

Civilization Niall Ferguson, 2011 DAILY TELEGRAPH BOOKS OF THE YEAR If in the year 1411 you had been able to circumnavigate the globe you would have been most impressed by the dazzling civilizations of the Orient The Forbidden City was under construction in Ming Beijing in the Near East the Ottomans were closing in on Constantinople By contrast England would have struck you as a miserable backwater ravaged by plague bad sanitation and incessant war The other quarrelsome kingdoms of Western Europe Aragon Castile France Portugal and Scotland would have seemed little better As for fifteenth century North America it was an anarchic wilderness compared with the realms of the Aztecs and Incas The idea that the West would come to dominate the Rest for most of the next half millennium would have struck you as wildly fanciful And yet it happened What was it about the civilization of Western Europe that allowed it to trump the outwardly superior empires of the Orient The answer Niall Ferguson argues was that the West developed six killer applications that the Rest lacked competition science democracy medicine consumerism and the work ethic The key question today is whether or not the West has lost its monopoly on these six things If so Ferguson warns we may be living through the end of Western ascendancy Civilization takes readers on their own extraordinary journey around the world from the Grand Canal at Nanjing to the Topkapi Palace in Istanbul from Machu Picchu in the Andes to Shark Island Namibia from the proud towers of Prague to the secret churches of Wenzhou It is the story of sailboats missiles land deeds vaccines blue jeans and Chinese Bibles It is the defining narrative of modern world history Civilization in the West Mark A. Kishlansky,1991-02 Good-bye to Western Culture Norman Douglas,1930 Civilization in the West: Since 1789 Mark A. Kishlansky,Patrick J. Geary,Patricia O'Brien,1991-01-01 Civilization in the West, Volume 2 Mark Kishlansky,Patrick Geary,Patricia O'Brien,2014-12-02 This book recounts the human story of Western civilisation using images of history paintings photographs artifacts to illustrate the social political economic and intellectual issues which have shaped it Civilization in the West, Volume II Mark Kishlansky,Patrick Geary,Patricia O'Brien,2006 With 20 additional primary source documents Volume II of Civilization in the West Sixth Edition Primary Source Edition has everything students need to succeed in the course a highly readable survey text that examines all aspects of Western civilization plus a wealth of original documents that help make the material come alive In addition Document Analysis questions encourage students to delve deeper into the documents and to explore how they relate to the events of the time Book jacket Inventing Western Civilization Thomas C. Patterson,1997 In this wonderful book Thomas Patterson effectively dethrones the concept of civilization as an abstract good transcending human society Martin Bernal Drawing on his extensive knowledge of early societies Thomas C Patterson shows how class sexism and racism have been integral to the appearance of civilized societies in Western Europe He lays out clearly and simply how civilization with its designs of civilizing and being civilized has been closely tied to the rise of capitalism in Western Europe and the development of social classes
