Black Pilgrimage to Islam Robert Dannin,2005 Islam has become an increasingly attractive option for many African Americans This book offers an ethnographic study of this phenomenon asks what attraction the Qur an has for them how the Islamic lifestyle accommodates mainstream US values

Black Routes to Islam M. Marable,2009-08-03 Starting with 19th century narratives of African American travelers to the Holy Land the following chapters probe Islam s role in urban social movements music and popular culture relations between African Americans and Muslim immigrants and the racial politics of American Islam with the ongoing war in Iraq

Muslim American Politics and the Future of US Democracy Edward E. Curtis IV,2019-12-03 Reveals the important role of Muslim Americans in American politics Since the 1950s and especially in the post 9 11 era Muslim Americans have played outsized roles in US politics sometimes as political dissidents and sometimes as political insiders However more than at any other moment in history Muslim Americans now stand at the symbolic center of US politics and public life This volume argues that the future of American democracy depends on whether Muslim Americans are able to exercise their political rights as citizens and whether they can find acceptance as social equals Many believe that over time Muslim Americans will be accepted just as other religious minorities have been Yet Curtis contends that this belief overlooks the real barrier to their full citizenship which is political rather than cultural The dominant form of American liberalism has prevented the political assimilation of American Muslims even while leaders from Eisenhower to Obama have offered rhetorical support for their acceptance Drawing on examples ranging from the political rhetoric of the Nation of Islam in the 1950s and 1960s to the symbolic use of fallen Muslim American service members in the 2016 election cycle Curtis shows that the efforts of Muslim Americans to be regarded as full Americans have been going on for decades yet never with full success Curtis argues that policies laws and political rhetoric concerning Muslim Americans are quintessential American political questions Debates about freedom of speech and religion equal justice under law and the war on terrorism have placed Muslim Americans at the center of public discourse How Americans decide to view and make policy regarding Muslim Americans will play a large role in what kind of country the United States will become and whether it will be a country that chooses freedom over fear and justice over prejudice

A History of Islam in America Kambiz GhaneaBassiri,2010-04-19 Muslims began arriving in the New World long before the rise of the Atlantic slave trade Kambiz GhaneaBassiri s fascinating book traces the history of Muslims in the United States and their different waves of immigration and conversion across five centuries through colonial and antebellum America through world wars and civil rights struggles to the contemporary era The book tells the often deeply moving stories of individual Muslims and their lives as immigrants and citizens within the broad context of the American religious experience showing how that experience has been integral to the evolution of American Muslim institutions and practices This is a unique and intelligent portrayal of a diverse religious community and its relationship with America It will serve as a strong antidote to the current politicized dichotomy between Islam and the West which has come to dominate the study of Muslims in America and further afield

Black Muslim Religion in the Nation of Islam, 1960-1975 Edward E. Curtis, 2006 Black Muslim Religion in the Nation of Islam 1960-1975 Religion and Politics in the Contemporary United States R. Marie Griffith, Melani McAlister, 2008-06-09 This collection of essays from a special issue of American Quarterly explores the complex and sometimes contradictory ways that religion matters in contemporary public life Religion and Politics in the Contemporary United States offers a groundbreaking cross disciplinary conversation between scholars in American studies and religious studies The contributors explore numerous modes through which religious faith has mobilized political action They utilize a variety of definitions of politics ranging from lobbying by religious leaders to the political impact of popular culture Their work includes the political activities of a very diverse group of religious believers Christians Jews Muslims Hindus Buddhists and others In addition the book explores the meanings of religion for people who might contest the term those who are spiritual but not religious for example as well as activists who engage symbols of faith and community but who may not necessarily consider themselves members of a specific religion Several essays also examine the meanings of secular identity humanist politics and the complex evocations of civil religion in American life No other book on religion and politics includes anything like the diversity of religions ethnicities and topics that this one does from Mormon political mobilization to attempts at Americanizing Muslims in the post 9 11 United States from Cesar Chavez to James Dobson from interreligious cooperation and conflict over Darfur to the global politics surrounding the category of Hindus and South Asians in the United States

Islam Among Urban Blacks Michael Nash, 2008-02-15 This book examines the evolution of Muslim community development in Newark New Jersey It is an historical account of the efforts of a diverse community that over several decades grappled with the challenge of establishing a respected place for their Islamic lifestyle within the United States Further it is a story linked closely to the experience of African Americans who have claimed Islam as their religion and struggled to create and to maintain an identity in the social fabric of Newark's twentieth century Black religious culture The complexities of race identity inter religious and intra religious relations are the four central themes explored

Dilemmas of Authenticity Zaid Adhami, 2025-05-07 The past two decades have witnessed pervasive anxieties in US Muslim communities around a perceived crisis of faith As Zaid Adhami argues in this richly textured ethnography these concerns are fundamentally about the pressures and dilemmas of authenticity what it really means to be a Muslim While discussions about authenticity in Islam typically focus on maintaining tradition and competing claims to true Islam Adhami focuses instead on the powerful idea of being true to one's own self and what it means to have genuine belief Drawing on extensive conversations with American Muslims and careful readings of broader communal discourse Adhami shows that this drive for personal authenticity plays out in complicated ways It can produce deep doubt while also serving as the grounds to affirm tradition It can converge with revivalist modes of piety but it can also prompt emphatic challenges to communal orthodoxies Through vivid storytelling and sensitive analysis Adhami illuminates why religious doubt is often a source of intense anxiety in today's world and how people maintain their faith despite such unsettling uncertainty Islam and the Search for African-American Nationhood Dennis Walker, 2005 The Nation of Islam and its successors after 1975 from millenarian protest to transcontinental relationships African Islam in the evolution of the African American nation formation and development of America's multi ethnic society The difficult rebirth of Islam among African Americans 1900 1950 The heyday of Elijah his articulation of ideology in the 1960s and 1970s Elijah Muhammad's Muslims in a changing America The rise of Farrakhan in Elijah's Noi Farrakhan's changing post 1990 nation of Islam Islam in America Laura K. Egendorf, 2006 Muslims have lived in the United States for more than a century In the wake of the September 11 2001 terrorist attacks and American foreign policy a better understanding of Islam in America is needed The contributors to this book analyze various issues concerning American Muslims such as their political views and the prejudice they experience
