Black Firsts Two Thousand Years Of Extraordinary Achievements:

Black Firsts Jessie Carney Smith, Casper LeRoy Jordan, Robert L. Johns, 1994 With this award winning author Jessie Carney Smith both introduces and begins to explain the significance of the more than 3 000 individuals and events covered in Black Firsts Here are the stories of pioneers in all fields arts entertainment business civil rights education government journalism religion science sports and more With 200 illustrations and a special fold out timeline Black Firsts chronicles milestones throughout black history with special attention given to African American achievement Book jacket

Encyclopedia of African American History, 1619-1895 Paul Finkelman, 2006-04-06 It is impossible to understand America without understanding the history of African Americans In nearly seven hundred entries the Encyclopedia of African American History 1619 1895 documents the full range of the African American experience during that period from the arrival of the first slave ship to the death of Frederick Douglass and shows how all aspects of American culture history and national identity have been profoundly influenced by the experience of African Americans The Encyclopedia covers an extraordinary range of subjects Major topics such as Abolitionism Black Nationalism the Civil War the Dred Scott case Reconstruction Slave Rebellions and Insurrections the Underground Railroad and Voting Rights are given the in depth treatment one would expect But the encyclopedia also contains hundreds of fascinating entries on less obvious subjects such as the African Grove Theatre Black Seafarers Buffalo Soldiers the Catholic Church and African Americans Cemeteries and Burials Gender Midwifery New York African Free Schools Oratory and Verbal Arts Religion and Slavery the Secret Six and much more In addition the Encyclopedia offers brief biographies of important African Americans as well as white Americans who have played a significant role in African American history from Crispus Attucks John Brown and Henry Ward Beecher to Olaudah Equiano Frederick Douglass Sarah Grimke Sojourner Truth Nat Turner Phillis Wheatley and many others All of the Encyclopedia's alphabetically arranged entries are accessibly written and free of jargon and technical terms To facilitate ease of use many composite entries gather similar topics under one headword The entry for Slave Narratives for example includes three subentries The Slave Narrative in America from the Colonial Period to the Civil War Interpreting Slave Narratives and African and British Slave Narratives A headnote detailing the various subentries introduces each composite entry Selective bibliographies and cross references appear at the end of each article to direct readers to related articles within the Encyclopedia and to primary sources and scholarly works beyond it A topical outline chronology of major events nearly 300 black and white illustrations and comprehensive index further enhance the work's usefulness Multicultural Information Quests Marie Rodgers, 2000-03-15 If you're searching for research activities or multicultural topics for a diverse student population this is the book for you Reproducible quizzes guide students through subjects that range from holidays and food to sports heroes and literature Cultural searches are related to Hispanics Native Americans African Americans Asian Americans and other U S immigrant groups For each quest the author provides an annotated reference list search questions and an answer key This is a fun and inspirational approach to building research skills while fostering an appreciation of diversity Guide to Reference in Essential General Reference and Library Science Sources Jo Bell Whitlatch, Susan E. Searing, 2014-08-06 Ideal for public school and academic libraries looking to freshen up their reference collection as well as for LIS students and instructors conducting research this resource collects the cream of the crop sources of general reference and library science information Michael Ray Charles, 1989-1997 Michael Ray Charles, 1997 Michael Ray Charles is a painter whose carefully crafted and faux aged canvases and works on paper draw attention to race relations historically and in contemporary society Borrowing pop culture images of characters such as Sambo Buckwheat and Aunt Jemima Charles uses them ironically to comment on racial issues His concerns range from how tobacco and liquor companies target marketing to minorities to the depiction of African Americans in the entertainment and sports industries to concepts of all American i e white beauty This book is the catalog of the first major solo exhibition of Charles work staged by Blaffer Gallery the Art Museum of the University of Houston It contains a broad range of color images of paintings and works on paper In addition to the catalog entries the book contains an interview between exhibit curator Don Bacigalupi catalog essayist Marilyn Kern Foxworth and artist Michael Ray Charles in which the artist discusses and interprets his work An essay by writer and cultural historian Marilyn Kern Foxworth situates Charles work within contemporary African American culture Ebony, 2001-06 EBONY is the flagship magazine of Johnson Publishing Founded in 1945 by John H Johnson it still maintains the highest global circulation of any African American focused magazine The African American Woman Golfer M. Mikell Johnson, 2007-12-30 The African American Woman Golfer Her Legacy gives a brief historical overview of African American women in golf and examines the sport to uncover all African American women who have been involved in golf over the past 75 years M Mikell Johnson shows how these women who were seemingly far removed from the white male privileged world of the country club broke both color and gender barriers to become golfers This book traces the history of how African American women got involved in golf Title VI and Title IX alleviated some of the racial and financial burdens for some young women in high school and college athletics allowing them to participate in all sports regardless of race creed or gender Women s clubs also provided a stable foundation for female athletes in male dominated sports The misinformation social apathy financial encumbrances and finally the role of the media in both promoting and preventing black women s opportunities in golf are discussed The African American Woman Golfer Her Legacy identifies over 300 women and their lives in golf The author also profiles prominent golfers such as Althea Gibson who crossed the LPGA color line Helen Webb Harris who created the first club for black women golfers and Ann Gregory who broke the USGA whites only clause in women s golf Profiles of Black Success Gene N. Landrum, 1997-02 Although the behavior patterns of these thirteen superachievers are consistent with his findings on nonblacks Landrum concludes the book with ten cultural differences in the ways blacks and nonblacks approach creativity and innovation Among these cultural factors was the fact that these thirteen black subjects were far better educated than the white subjects Transformational Leadership in the Life of W.E.B. Du Bois Raydora Susan Drummer,1995 Senior High Core Collection Raymond W. Barber,Patrice Bartell,2007 Features annotations for more than 6 200 works in the main volume 2007 and more than 2 400 new titles in three annual supplements published 2008 through 2010 New coverage of biographies art sports Islam the Middle East cultural diversity and other contemporary topics keeps your library s collection as current as today s headlines Our First Hundred Years Charles Edwards Lester,1877
