Black Theatre Present Condition Woodie King, 1981 African-American Performance and Theater History Harry Justin Elam, David Krasner, 2001 An anthology of critical writings that explores the intersections of race theater and performance in America The Cambridge Companion to African American Theatre Harvey Young, 2013 With contributions from the leading scholars in the field this Companion provides a comprehensive and accessible overview of African American theatre from the early nineteenth century to the present day Along the way it chronicles the evolution of African American theatre and its engagement with the wider community The Facts on File Companion to American Drama Jackson R. Bryer, Mary C. Hartig, 2010 Features a comprehensive guide to American dramatic literature from its origins in the early days of the nation to the groundbreaking works of today's best writers Contemporary African American Female Playwrights Dana A. Williams, 1998-06-30 Lorraine Hansberry's A Raisin in the Sun 1959 was a major dramatic success and brought to the world's attention the potential talent of African American women playwrights But in spite of Hansberry's landmark contribution both the theater and the literary world have often failed to include contemporary African American female playwrights within the circle of production publication and criticism In African American drama anthologies female playwrights are seldom given the degree of attention that is accorded their male counterparts And because of space constraints anthologies of works by women playwrights are forced to exclude numerous female dramatists including African Americans Meanwhile some scholars have argued that the works of African American female playwrights are seldom produced in the mainstream theater because these plays frequently challenge the views of white America But as A Raisin in the Sun demonstrates plays by African American women dramatists can have a powerful message and are worthy of attention A comprehensive research tool this annotated bibliography sheds light on the often neglected works of contemporary African American female playwrights Included within its scope are those dramatists who have had at least one work published since 1959 the year of Hansberry's monumental achievement The first section provides a listing of anthologies that include one or more plays written by an African American female dramatist The second gives entries for reference works and for scholarly and critical studies of the dramatists and their plays The third presents a listing of published plays by individual dramatists along with a summary of each drama the works of each playwright that are related to drama and secondary sources that treat the dramatists and their plays Entries are accompanied by concise but informative annotations and the volume closes with a list of periodicals that frequently publish criticism of African American female playwrights a section of brief biographical sketches of the dramatists and extensive indexes American Theatre, 2003 Reference Library of Black America Harry A. Ploski, James De Bois Williams, 1990 Presents information on all aspects of Afro American life including politics employment and income education religion literature performing arts science and medicine and sports The Work of Vinnette Carroll, an African American Theatre Artist Calvin A. McClinton, 2000 McClinton theater arts Kent State U

provides an account of the artistic and administrative contributions of theater director and playwright Vinnette Carroll b 1922 to the Black Theatre Movement and the emergence of Black gospel musical theater in America He presents a biographical profile of her youth through 1957 discussion of her early years learning acting and directing her work and philosophy as a director and collaborator the development of the song play genre the Urban Arts Corps and a discussion of the Vinnette Carroll Repertory Company and her legacy Appendices list her acting and directing credits and her off and on Broadway performances

Notable Black American Women Jessie Carney Smith,1992 Arranged alphabetically from Alice of Dunk s Ferry to Jean Childs Young this volume profiles 312 Black American women who have achieved national or international prominence

The Greenwood Encyclopedia of African American Literature: I-N Hans A. Ostrom,J. David Macey,2005 Designed to meet the needs of high school students undergraduates and general readers this encyclopedia is the most comprehensive reference available on African American literature from its origins to the present Other works include many brief entries or offer extended biographical sketches of a limited selection of writers This encyclopedia surpasses existing references by offering full and current coverage of a vast range of authors and topics While most of the entries are on individual authors the encyclopedia gathers together information about the genres and geographical and cultural environments in which these writers have worked and the social political and aesthetic movements in which they have participated Thus the encyclopedia gives special attention to the historical and cultural forces that have shaped African American writing Publisher
