Blanchot's Vigilance:

Blanchot's Vigilance L. Iyer, 2005-11-29 Of the many questions provoked by Blanchot's thought and writing that of understanding its ethical and political significance is perhaps the most pressing. Spanning his literary critical and philosophical writings and addressing such major concepts as the image and the neuter, Blanchot's Vigilance presents a sustained analysis of Blanchot's response to Levinas's ethical thought, the political commitments of the Surrealists, Heidegger's readings of the ancient Greeks, and the claims of psychoanalysis. In a series of thorough and lucid readings, Iyer presents Blanchot's central concern as maintaining a kind of vigilance over a difference which opens in the articulation of sense.

The Other Night Herschel Farbman, 2008 I sleep but my heart wakes says the Song of Songs. The other night names the sleepless night we spend in dreams. From The Interpretation of Dreams to Finnegans Wake, many of the great writing projects of the first half of the twentieth century tell tales of this sleepless night. In the post-war waning of the dreamier modernist projects, writers such as Beckett and Blanchot work through the residual fatigue. The Other Night looks anew into the causes of this fatigue. Beginning by establishing a link between Freud's claim that the dream is a kind of pictographic writing and his metapsychological claim that the dream represents the impossibility of complete sleep, The Other Night studies in readings of Joyce, Beckett, and Blanchot the unrest at once literary and political in which dreams come to us. Boundary of Language in Heidegger, Beckett, and Blanchot Michiko Tsushima, 1997 Blanchot's Epoch Leslie Hill, Michael Holland, 2007 As a writer of fiction, a literary critic, thinker, and political commentator, Maurice Blanchot fulfilled some of his century's most pressing challenges. In the centenary year of his birth, this volume considers these questions from a variety of approaches and addresses the significance of Blanchot's writing for the times to come. French XX
