The Bright Shawl (Classic Reprint) Joseph Hergesheimer, 2017-10-12 Excerpt from The Bright Shawl: Charles Abbott sighed and raised his head. He was sitting in the formal, narrow reception room of his city house. The street outside was narrow too; it ran for only a square, an old thoroughfare with old brick houses, once no more than a service alley for the larger dwellings, back of which it ran. Now, perfectly retaining its quietude, it had acquired a new dignity of residence because of its favorable, its exclusive situation; it was occupied by young, married people of highly desirable connections. Abbott, well past sixty and single, was the only person there of his age and condition.
