Bright Journey:

Resisting Hitler Shareen Blair Brysac, 2002-05-23 This gripping and heartbreaking narrative is the first full account of an American woman who gave her life in the struggle against the Nazi regime As members of a key resistance group Mildred Harnack and her husband Arvid assisted in the escape of German Jews and political dissidents and for years provided vital economic and military intelligence to both Washington and Moscow But in 1942 following a Soviet blunder the Gestapo arrested tortured and tried some four score members of the Harnacks group which the Nazis dubbed the Red Orchestra Mildred Fish Harnack was guillotined in Berlin on February 16 1943 on the personal instruction of Adolf Hitler she was the only American woman to be executed as an underground conspirator during World War II Yet as the war ended and the Cold War began her courage idealism and self sacrifice went largely unacknowledged in America and the democratic West and were distorted and sanitized in the Communist East Only now with the opening of long sealed archives from Germany the KGB the CIA and the FBI can the full story be told In this superbly told life of an unjustly forgotten woman Shareen Blair Brysac depicts the human side of a controversial resistance group that for too long has been portrayed as merely a Soviet espionage network Howitt's Journal William Howitt, 1847 Literary Representations of Christianity in Late Qing and Republican China John T.
