

Britain At Bay

Howard D'Egville

Britain At Bay:

Britain at Bay Alan Allport, 2020 A sweeping groundbreaking epic that combines military with social history to illuminate the ways in which Great Britain and its people were permanently transformed by the Second World War Here is the many faceted world historically significant story of Britain at war In looking closely at the military and political dimensions of the conflict Alan Allport seeks to answer questions such as Could the war have been avoided Could it have been lost Were the strategic decisions the rights ones How well did the British organize and fight How well did the British live up to their own values What difference did the war make in the end to the fate of the nation In answering these and other essential questions he focuses unlike many historians on the human contingencies of the war looking directly at the roles of individuals and the outcomes determined by luck or chance Moreover he looks intimately at the changes in wartime and postwar British society and culture Whether discussing the mixing of classes during the war or the Labour Party movement he shows us in great detail the effects of the war again not only on an institutional but on an individual level as well For better or worse much of Britain today is ultimately the product of the experiences of 1939 1941 Britain at Bay Spenser Wilkinson, 1910 Coastal Defences of the British Empire in the Revolutionary & Napoleonic Eras Daniel S.

MacCannell, 2021-06-30 Far more than an architecture book Coastal Defences of the British Empire 1775 1815 is a sweeping reinterpretation of the Martello towers Grand Redoubts Royal Military Canal and other new defence infrastructure of the Napoleonic War Lavishly illustrated with period maps views portraits cartoons and newly commissioned color photographs it includes not only these structures forerunners and plans that were never executed but also the grand strategy that informed them At its best this saw Britain's position as a vast land battle with the deadly threat of the French held Antwerp navy yards on its own left wing and Lisbon as the enemy's weak left to be turned The book also takes in the astonishingly inventive bold and bloody small boat wars that raged from the Baltic and Channel coast to Chesapeake Bay and Lake Ontario and provides vivid pen sketches of the now obscure and sometimes deeply flawed strategic visionaries engineers inventors and fighting men who held the line as even after Trafalgar the forces of an ever more powerful French empire circled like sharks Along the way it traces a fundamental change in the nature of war and society from a ponderous game of fortresses and colonies played by rulers to murderous foot by foot defence of the whole territory of the nation by both sexes and every social type

Potter,2014-01-03 The Roman Empire at Bay is the only one volume history of the critical years 180 395 AD which saw the transformation of the Roman Empire from a unitary state centred on Rome into a new polity with two capitals and a new religion Christianity The book integrates social and intellectual history into the narrative looking to explore the relationship between contingent events and deeper structure It also covers an amazingly dramatic narrative from the civil wars after the death of Commodus through the conversion of Constantine to the arrival of the Goths in the Roman Empire setting in motion the final collapse of the western empire The new edition takes account of important new scholarship in questions of Roman identity on economy and society as well as work on the age of Constantine which has advanced significantly in the last decade while recent archaeological and art historical work is more fully drawn into the narrative At its core the central question that drives The Roman Empire at Bay remains what did it mean to be a Roman and how did that meaning change as the empire changed Updated for a new generation of students this book remains a crucial tool in the study of this period The National and English Review ,1910 Imperial Defence and Closer Union Howard D'Egville,1913 Colburn's United Service Magazine and Naval and Military Journal ,1910 Complete Works Ralph Waldo Emerson,1888 List of References on Europe and
