British Fiction Of The 1990s:

British Fiction of the 1990s Nick Bentley, 2005 Presenting a fresh perspective on the diverse writings that appeared in British fiction during the 1990s this book brings together leading academics in the field

The 1990s: A Decade of Contemporary British Fiction Nick Hubble, Philip Tew, Leigh Wilson, 2015-05-21 How did social cultural and political events in Britain during the 1990s shape contemporary British Fiction From the fall of the Berlin Wall to the turn of the millennium the 1990s witnessed a realignment of global politics Against the changing international scene this volume uses events abroad and in Britain to examine and explain the changes taking place in British fiction including the celebration of national identities fuelled by the move toward political devolution in Northern Ireland Scotland and Wales the literary optimism in urban ethnic fictions written by a new generation of authors born and raised in Britain the popularity of neo Victorian fiction Critical surveys are balanced by in depth readings of work by the authors who defined the decade including A S Byatt Hanif Kureishi Will Self Caryl Phillips and Irvine Welsh an approach that illustrates exactly how their key themes and concerns fit within the social and political circumstances of the decade

Contemporary British Fiction Nick Bentley, 2017-11-15 This essential guide provides a comprehensive survey of the most important debates in the criticism and research of contemporary British fiction Nick Bentley analyses the criticism surrounding a range of British novelists including Monica Ali Martin Amis Pat Barker Alan Hollinghurst Kazuo Ishiguro Ian McEwan David Mitchell Ali Smith Zadie Smith Sarah Waters and Jeanette Winterson Exploring experiments with literary form this authoritative book considers cutting edge concerns relating to the neo historical novel the relationship between literature and science literary geographies and trauma narratives Engaging with key literary theories and identifying present trends and future directions in the literary criticism of contemporary British fiction this is an invaluable resource for undergraduate and postgraduate students of English literature teachers researchers and scholars

Literature of the 1990s Peter Marks, 2017-12-20 No detailed description available for Literature of the 1990s

British Women's Comic Fiction, 1890-1990 Margaret Diane Stetz, 2001 This work focuses upon women who have not merely produced comic texts but used their comedies to examine laughter itself as a problematic issue Whether to embrace laughter wholeheartedly whether to do so in a cautious and limited manner or whether to forswear it entirely women's opinions and indeed feminists opinions have seldom been in accord on one answer For women writers of the 20th century a century of activism laughter has been something to be weighed carefully in terms of its ethical political and pragmatic relationship to feminist values as well as its ability or inability to help women survive

Cosmopolitan Novel Berthold Schoene, 2009-06-23 While traditionally the novel has been seen as tracking the development of the nation state Schoene queries if globalisation might currently be prompting the emergence of a new sub genre of the novel that is adept at imagining global community The book introduces a new generation of contemporary British writers Rachel Cusk Kiran Desai Hari Kunzru Jon McGregor and David Mitchell whose work is read against that of established novelists Arundhati Roy James Kelman and Ian McEwan Each chapter explores a different theoretical key concept including glocality glomicity tour du monde connectivity and compearance Key Features Defines the new genre of the cosmopolitan novel by reading contemporary British fiction as responsive to new global socio economic formations Expands knowledge of world culture national identity literary creativity and political agency by introducing concepts from globalisation and cosmopolitan theory into literary studies Explores debates on Britishness and the contemporary with close reference to the fall of the Berlin Wall on 9 11 1989 and the World Trade Centre attacks on 11 9 2001 Introduces a new generation of British writers within a complex global context by drawing on Jean Luc Nancy s work on community and creative world formation

Thomas Adès: Asyla Edward Venn,2017-05-12 In 1953 John Gallagher and Ronald Robinson shook the foundations of imperial history with their essay The Imperialism of Free Trade They reshaped how historians saw the British empire focussing not on the red bits on the map and the wishes of policy makers in London but rather on British economic and political influence globally Expanding on this analysis this volume provides an examination of imperialism which brings the reader right up to the present This book offers an innovative assessment and analysis of the history and contemporary status of imperial control It does so in four parts examining the historical emergence and traditions of imperialism the relationships between the periphery and the metropolitan the role of supranational agencies in the extension of imperial control and how these connect to financialisation and international political economy The book provides a dynamic and unique perspective on imperialism by bringing together a range of contributors both established and up and coming scholars activists and those from industry from a wide range of disciplines and backgrounds In providing these authors a space to apply their insights this engaging volume sheds light on the practical implications of imperialism for the contemporary world With a broad chronological and geographical sweep this book provides theoretical and empirical engagements with the nature of imperialism and its effects upon societies It will be of great interest to a broad range of disciplines across the humanities and social sciences especially those working in History Politics and Management and Organisation Studies
