British Heritage In Colour:

Colour Films in Britain Sarah Street, 2019-07-25 How did the coming of colour change the British film industry Unlike sound the arrival of colour did not revolutionise the industry overnight For British film makers and enthusiasts colour was a controversial topic While it was greeted by some as an exciting development with scope for developing a uniquely British aesthetic others were deeply concerned How would audiences accustomed to seeing black and white films which were commonly regarded as being superior to their garish colour counterparts react Yet despite this initial trepidation colour captivated many British inventors and film makers Using different colour processes these innovators produced films that demonstrated remarkable experimentation and quality Sarah Street's illuminating study is the first to trace the history of colour in British cinema and analyses the use of colour in a range of films both fiction and non fiction including The Open Road The Glorious Adventure This is Colour Blithe Spirit This Happy Breed Black Narcissus The Red Shoes The Tales of Hoffmann and Moulin Rouge Beautifully illustrated with full colour film stills this important study provides fascinating insights into the complex process whereby the challenges and opportunities of new technologies are negotiated within creative practice The book also includes a Technical Appendix by Simon Brown Kingston University UK which provides further details of the range of colour processes used by British film makers

Layers of Understanding Helen Hughes, 2017-09-29 These are the proceedings of an English Heritage national seminar which was organised to address growing concerns about the variable quality of architectural paint research currently being carried out The book describes and explains its role in understanding and managing historic buildings The contributions contained in this book are designed to promote the development of standards and guidelines for use by clients and consultants helping to shape the development of this vital new discipline It therefore contains edited transcripts of the ground breaking discussion sessions on the proposed English Heritage guidelines and other important issues The statutory requirements relating to painted interiors of listed buildings is another very problematical issue which has been considered in detail In addition guidance is provided on commissioning paint research and the pitfalls to avoid The book will be essential reading for paint researched architects surveyors conservation officers and all practitioners involved in commissioning paint research for historic buildings
