British Literature 1780-1830:

English Literature in History, 1780-1830 Roger Sales, 2023-02-03 First published in 1983 English Literature in History 1780 1830 is an original and provocative study of the literature of the Romantic period with an introduction by Raymond Williams Roger Sales concentrates his analysis on two related themes The first the politics of pastoral analyses the use of this genre by both established writers and poets who were enormously popular in their time but who are now less well known The author argues that all literary treatments of rural society in this period make political statements particularly when they displace or disguise the economic facts of life His second theme the theatre of politics introduces the reader to some of the main political events of the period and demonstrates how their form and presentation can illuminate some of the literature of the period This book will be of interest to students and teachers of English literature A Survey of English Literature, 1780-1830 Oliver Elton, 1912 British Literature, 1780-1830 Anne Kostelanetz Mellor, Richard E. Lessenich, 2012 Romanticism was not only heterogeneous and disunited It also had to face the hostile counter movement of the Enlightenment and Augustan Neoclassicism still going strong at the time of and in the decades following the French Revolution due to support from the ruling Establishment the ancien regime of the Crown and Church of England Neoclassicists regarded Romanticism as a heteretical amalgam of dissenting new schools which threatened the monopoly of the Classical Tradition The acrimonious debates in aesthetics and politics were conducted with the traditional strategies of the classical ars disputandi on both sides Under the duress of the heaviest satirical attacks Romanticism began gradually to see itself as one movement giving rise to the problematic opposition of Classical and Romantic The construction of this rough divide however was indispensable for the clarification of different positions in the hubbub of conflicting voices and has also proved critical in literary and cultural studies which cannot do without such subsumptions The Classical Tradition encompassing Christianity emerges as an ongoing event from Greek and Latin antiquity running through to our time Irish Literature in Transition, 1780-1830: Volume 2 Claire Connolly, 2020-03-12 The years between 1780 and 1830 are vital decades in the history of Irish writing in English This book charts the confluence of Enlightenment antiquarian and romantic energies within Irish literary culture and shows how different writers and genres absorbed dispersed and remade those interests during five decades of political change During those same years literature made its own history By the 1840s Irish writing formed a recognizable body of work which later generations would draw on quote anthologize and dispute Questions raised by novels poems and plays of the late eighteenth and early nineteenth
