City Council,1882 City Boy: Chronicles of a Nairobi Life Dr. Frank Njenga,2025-05-22 The mention of an African autobiography often evokes images of a want and penury a childhood sullied by poverty and hopelessness and the predictable rags to riches narrative Not so for City Boy In this bold and refreshing account Dr Frank Njenga a leading psychiatrist and author weaves a compelling tale of growing up in an affluent neighbourhood attending a once European only school enjoying foreign travel in childhood and all the trappings of a good upbringing His account of the Mau Mau period as well as the post independence era is captivating With candour and charm he invites readers into the world that shaped him a world of books travel privilege and the rich tapestry of people who influenced his journey It is a story that turns tables on the notion that rural poverty and adversity in childhood are the building blocks of a successful life Rather City Boy offers a new lens through which to view adolescence in the 1960s personal ambition and what it takes to scale the heights of professional growth In City Boy Dr Njenga rewrites the script on success with elegance honesty and a rare clarity of thought The Guide to Nature ,1929 Children's Catalog ,1909 Documents of the School Committee of the City of Boston Boston (Mass.). given their due along with a short lived religious vocation and a stint at the seminary A pseudo farm kid Bazzett tells too of his trials with cows chickens and picking pickles and of lessons in animal psychology learned from his grandfather His high school years are marred by pimples dorkiness and pining for the popular girls but brightened by a few close friends and some minor successes on the basketball court He loves some of his teachers clashes with others and even terrorizes one as he fumbles his way toward manhood It s all here the work the play the frustrations and the joys of growing up working class and Catholic in the heart of small town America Anyone who has been there will chuckle remember and relate to Reed City Boy
