Cadillac Man:

The Soul King III Ray Patino, 2025-12-28 The Red Apocalypse has finally ended leaving behind only the fractured remains of a world struggling to remember what peace once felt like Cities lie in ruin kingdoms have fallen silent and the survivors cling to whatever fragments of hope they can still grasp As the story moves beyond the events of The Soul King I it is a retreat from purpose from responsibility and from the truth he fears most Meanwhile the Transverse Angel stands at a crossroads of his own refusing to acknowledge the shifting balance of power or the role he must play in what is to come His silence his denial and his distance from the unfolding chaos threaten to unravel the fragile threads holding the realms together And so as the world trembles on the edge of its final reckoning its greatest protectors remain fractured haunted hesitant and unprepared for the storm that is gathering
