Caged Heat:

The Men Who Knew Too Much Susan M. Griffin, Alan Nadel, 2011-12-19 Henry James and Alfred Hitchcock knew too much Self imposed exiles they approached American and European society as inside outsiders a position that afforded them a kind of double vision Masters of their arts manipulators of their audiences prescient and pathbreaking in their techniques these demanding and meticulous craftsmen produced some of the greatest art of the last 150 years This capacious collection with its brilliant insights and intellectual surprises is equally compelling in its range and cogency for James readers and film theorists for Hitchcock fans and James scholars

What Goes Around Comes Around Michael Bliss, Christina Banks, 1996 A historical study of the Federal Music Project FMP investigates the paradoxical mission of employing popular musicians during the depression and raising musical tastes by emphasizing European classical traditions Bindas history Kent State U reveals the obvious tensions between FMP leadership and its musicians particularly the racial and ethnic segregation perpetuated by its policies However in an even handed treatment the project s successes in bringing music to millions of listeners is also highlighted Annotation copyright by Book News Inc Portland OR

Women, Film, and Law Suzanne Bouclin, 2021-03-15 Entertainment and profit constitute the driving force behind popular representations of women in correctional facilities But the creative influence of film and television also generates legal meaning The women in prison WIP genre can leave viewers feeling both empathetic toward the women portrayed in these representations and troubled about the crimes for which they have been convicted Focusing on five exemplary WIP films and a television series Ann Vickers Caged Caged Heat Stranger Inside Civil Brand and Orange Is the New Black Women Film and Law asks how fictional representations explore shape and refine beliefs about women who are incarcerated From melodrama to exploitation and from theatre screenings to on demand film television programs and music videos these texts bring into view the legal economic and political structures that criminalize women differently from men and that target those women who are already marginalized Women Film and Law convincingly argues that popular depictions of women s imprisonment can illuminate the multiple forms of social exclusion and oppression experienced by criminalized women
