Schools Into Fields and

Factories Ming K. Chan, Arif Dirlik, 1991 In this collaborative effort by two leading scholars of modern Chinese history Ming K Chan and Arif Dirlik investigate how the short lived National Labor University in Shanghai was both a reflection of the revolutionary concerns of its time and a catalyst for future radical experiments in education Under the slogan Turn schools into fields and factories fields and factories into schools the university attempted to bridge the gap between intellectual and manual labor which its founders saw as a central problem of capitalism and which remains a persistent theme in Chinese revolutionary thinking The authors bring to bear the perspectives of institutional and intellectual history on their examination of the structure and operation of the university presenting new material on its faculty curriculum physical plant and history They demonstrate how the prominent features and problems of Chinese higher education during the early years of the Guomindang regime prefigure the Marxist program of the Cultural Revolution and continue to have an influence on revolutionary thinking in the situation of China today Jacket

Sources of Chinese Tradition Wm. Theodore De Bary, Richard Lufrano, 2001-04-18 For four decades Sources of Chinese Tradition has served to introduce Western readers to Chinese civilization as it has been seen through basic writings and historical documents of the Chinese themselves Now in its second edition revised and extended through Deng Xiaoping and Jiang Zemin era China this classic volume remains unrivaled for its wide selection of source readings on history society and thought in the world s largest nation Award winning China scholar Wm Theodore de Bary who edited the first edition in 1960 and his coeditor Richard Lufrano have revised and updated the second volume of Sources to reflect the interactions of ideas institutions and historical events from the seventeenth century up to the present day Beginning with Qing civilization and continuing to contemporary times volume II brings together key source texts from more than three centuries of Chinese history with opening essays by noted China authorities providing context for readers not familiar with the period in question Here are just a few of the topics covered in this second volume of Sources of Chinese Tradition Early Sino Western contacts in the seventeenth century Four centuries of Chinese reflections on differences between Eastern and Western civilizations Nineteenth and twentieth century reform movements with treatises on women s rights modern science and literary reform Controversies over the place of Confucianism in modern Chinese society The nationalist revolution including readings from Sun Yat sen and Chiang Kai shek The communist revolution with central writings by Mao Zedong Works from contemporary China featuring political essays from Deng Xiaoping and dissidents including Wei Jingsheng With more than two hundred selections in lucid readable translation by today s most renowned experts on Chinese language and civilization Sources of Chinese Tradition will continue to be recognized as the standard for source readings on Chinese civilization an indispensable learning tool for scholars and students of Asian civilizations

Freedom ,1899 The Spirit of Russia Tomáš Garrigue Masaryk,1919 Anarchism and Democracy John Wakeman,1920 Anarchy ,1917 Young China Mingwei Song,2020-05-11 The rise of youth is among the most dramatic stories of modern China Since the last years of the Qing dynasty youth has been made a new agent of history in Chinese intellectuals visions of national rejuvenation through such tremendously popular notions as young China and new youth The characterization of a young protagonist with a developmental story has also shaped the modern Chinese novel Young China takes youth as a central literary motif that was profoundly related to the ideas of nationhood and modernity in twentieth century China A synthesis of narrative theory and cultural history it combines historical investigations of the origin and development of the modern Chinese youth discourse with close analyses of the novelistic construction of the Chinese Bildungsroman which depicts the psychological growth of youth with a symbolic allusion to national rejuvenation Negotiating between self and society ideal and action and form and reality such a narrative manifests as well as complicates the various political and cultural symbolisms invested in youth through different periods of modern Chinese history In this story of young China the restless elusive and protean image of youth both perpetuates and problematizes the ideals of national rejuvenation
