J. Wan-ling

Wee, 2003-01-01 Culture Empire and the Question of Being Modern explores the problematic formation of national culture within modern English society. In this ambitious work of post colonial and cultural theory, C J Wan ling Wee investigates the complex interaction between a modern industrialized metropolitan and progressively rational English national culture and a nationalistic imperial discourse interested in territorial expansion and the valorization of an idealized agrarian past. Starting with the Victorian era, the work documents the complex relationship of concepts such as home and frontier and Englishness and colonialism through an analysis of key literary cultural figures in their historical contexts: Rudyard Kipling, Charles Kingsley, T S Eliot, and V S Naipaul. Wee brings the discussion of modernity into the present with a consideration of post imperial Singapore, a neo traditionalist modern society that reworks many of the colonial tropes and contradictions to investigate the ambiguities and contradictions revealed in the West's engagement with modernity. University of Toronto Quarterly
