Comics and Legal Aesthetics explores the epistemological dimensions of comics and the way this once maligned medium can help think about and reshape the form of law Traversing comics critical and cultural legal studies it seeks to enrich the theorisation of comics with a critical aesthetics that expands its value and significance for law as well as knowledge more generally It argues that comics multimodality its hybrid structure which represents a meeting point of text image reason and aesthetics opens understanding of the limits of law s rational texts by shifting between multiple frames and modes of presentation Comics thereby exposes the way all forms of knowledge are shaped out of an unstructured universe becoming a mask over this chaotic beyond This mask of knowing remains haunted by that which it can never fully capture or represent Comics thus models knowledge as an infinity of nested frames haunted by the chaos without structure In such a model the multiple aspects of law become one region of a vast and bottomless cascade of perspectives an infinite multiframe that extends far beyond the traditional confines of the comics page rendering law boundless The Year Book and Directory
