Myth and the Making of History Constance A. Cook,Christopher J. Foster,Susan Blader,2024-06-01 Myth and the Making of History examines the relationship between myth and history in early China a topic that has been explored by American paleographer and scholar of ancient China Sarah Allan throughout her career Allan has worked at a crucial and sensitive intersection where myth and history collide at the very heart of China's origin story Her work has created an intellectual space in which the disciplines of philosophy history anthropology archeology philology and literature have come together helping to change the way scholars conceive of historical patterns in China's past In Myth and the Making of History eleven senior and emerging scholars from both China and the West respond to the intellectual challenge raised by Allan's theoretical model of analysis of mythologized and historical figures and even dynasties that have intrigued scholars for generations and play a central role in the Chinese historical imagination The book will be of great interest to all scholars and students of China of whatever level and discipline and indeed those concerned with other early civilizations as well
