Competition is high, and the knowledge of how to succeed in the business is often lacking. To survive today, coaches must match their enthusiasm with strong business and marketing expertise. Lynn Grodzki and Wendy Allen are veteran business coaches who understand how to strategically approach the business and the practice of coaching, as well as how to mentor new coaches entering the profession. The Business and Practice of Coaching is the first text to combine a coaching approach, step-by-step exercises, direct suggestions, insider's tips, and motivational plans with solid business information and ideas in order to give new and experienced coaches exactly what they need to prosper in the competitive business of coaching. Grodzki and Allen help coaches succeed by giving them the right information, showing them how to develop an entrepreneurial mind set, and demonstrating how to customize a business plan that can spell the difference between accomplishment and collapse. Grodzki and Allen give each reader the ability to build a coaching business that has relevance to the larger community around it and be aligned with the new realities of the coaching profession.
