Bows Boy A Novel:

The Blind Bow-Boy. A Novel Carl Van Vechten,1923 Bow's Boy Richard Babcock,2010-05-11 Every now and then a small American town produces someone with such out of place talent that he seems to have come from a different world In the 1960s hardscrabble town of Laroque Wisconsin seventeen year old Ginger Piper a high school sports hero and a disarmingly poised and articulate young man is that sort of figure Or at least G Bowman Epps a rich lonely middle aged lawyer believes he is Bow is something of a town legend too Ungainly and scarred brilliant and stern famous for great inherited wealth he seems a vestige of a time gone by in a town where the legacy of past greatness embodied in the ornate decaying and defunct opera house casts a literal shadow But when Bow discovers Ginger Piper he is energized and inspired Where others have seen merely a charming basketball star Bow spies the seeds of something greater and the drive intelligence and passion to carry on Bow s legacy as a groundbreaking criminal attorney When Bow offers the boy a summer apprenticeship in his orderly practice it is an investment in a certain future and the initiation of an oddly matched friendship But when Ginger is accused of a startling crime that changes the town s perception of him Bow is not only surprised he s also implicated and forced to choose between his fierce sense of logic and his admiration for the boy The story unfolds as the first agonizing repercussions of the Vietnam War are being felt and the American people are struggling to comprehend a new kind of war It inspires a startling division between the generations at home as politics and personal lives inevitably collide Bow s investigator Charlie Stuart narrates the events thirty years later adding a perspective colored by tortured memories of his manic father and his halting pursuit of a young woman in town Anchored by a compelling mystery Bow s Boy is ultimately about greatness heroism loyalty and justice and the pain and solace of family The Blind Bow-boy Carl Van Vechten,1977
