Third Series Library of Congress. Copyright Office,1973 Science for Children Clark Hubler,1974 The Secret Language of Birds Adele Nozedar,2006 Containing historical facts myths and real life spiritual encounters with birds this book features information for bird lovers who are interested in esoterica history folklore and spiritual symbolism of birds throughout the world Decolonising and Reimagining Social Work in Africa Sharlotte Tusasiirwe,2023-07-07 This book explores contemporary debates on decolonisation and indigenisation of social work in Africa and provides readers with alternative models values and epistemologies for reimagining social work practice and education that can be applicable to a wide range of countries struggling with similar concerns It examines how indigenisation without decolonisation is just tokenistic since it is concerned with adapting modifying Western models to fit local contexts or generating local models to integrate into the already predominantly contextually irrelevant and culturally inappropriate mainstream Western social work in Africa By exploring decolonisation which calls for dismantling colonialism and colonial thinking to create central space for indigenous social work as mainstream social work especially in Africa it goes beyond tokenistic decolonisation to articulate some of the indigenous social work practice and social policy models values ethics and oral epistemologies that should take centre stage as locally relevant and culturally appropriate social work in Africa It also addresses the question of decolonising research methodologies highlighting some of the methods embedded in African indigenous perspectives for adoption when researching African social work The book has been written with both the coloniser colonised in mind and it will be of interest to all social work academics students and practitioners and others interested in gaining insights into how colonisation persists in social work and why it is necessary to find ways to disrupt it Courage of the Little
