Jesus and Materialism in the Gospel of Mark Robert Ewusie Moses, 2022-03-21 The Gospel of Mark presents Jesus ministry and mission as a journey on the way a journey to Jerusalem that ultimately results in his suffering and crucifixion On the journey to the cross Jesus embodies that which is least vulnerable and destitute in society and he invites his followers to journey with him on the way Robert Ewusie Moses argues that this invitation to discipleship is a call for believers to reassess their relationship with material possessions and their desire for wealth and power Like Jesus believers are to travel light on the way for holding on strongly to possessions can be a hindrance for the journey To embrace those in society who are least vulnerable and destitute is to embrace Jesus himself and the God who sent him Traveling light on the way requires believers to place their trust in God to depend on God to provide their needs Moses shows that the journey is by its very nature a rejection of the status quo it demands followers of Jesus to shun greed and the amassing of superfluous possessions that the world encourages The book demonstrates that to be on this journey is to commit to the creation of communities of care where those like Jesus poor vulnerable and marginalized are welcomed and cared for The Disciple, 1976-07 LJ, Library Journal, 1976 Preaching the New Millennium John Killinger, 1999 Preaching the New Millennium will help preachers identify the basic questions and concerns that their congregations have as the turn of the millennium occurs It outlines the basic biblical themes and texts that address these concerns and provides ideas for sermons and sermon series geared to preaching the new millennium Written in the lively engaging style characteristic of Killinger's work this book will be a valuable resource for all who wish to speak the word of the gospel in a changing time
