developments within and across the Organisation for Economic Co Operation and Development countries in strategic approaches to curriculum planning and the principles governing the organization of learning in schools The report concludes the initial phase of the Centre for Education Research and Innovation Project on Curriculum Reform and School Effectiveness The study comprised national returns from a structured questionnaire expert colloquia and a selected literature review The first three of eight chapters within this book address context changes in administrative relationships and control and general curriculum issues and pedagogic developments in the compulsory years of schooling In chapter 4 the emphasis moves toward what are virtually universal concerns namely the structure content and organization of the core curriculum Chapters 5 and 6 focus on developments in curriculum and pedagogy that are characteristic of either the primary or the secondary stage of schooling including those that are transitional between the two Chapter 7 examines the process of curriculum development and pedagogic reform and the potential dichotomy between professional freedom and tightly drawn evaluation and assessment procedures The appendixes provide a framework for the preparation of reports on curriculum reform in OECD countries including questions as well as a list of responding reports giving country title and author 52 references KM

The Governance of Curriculum Richard F. Elmore,1994 National state policy reform development

Reforming Education Benjamin Levin,2004-06-02 Ambitious programs of education reform have been introduced by many governments around the world Reforming Education is an important study of large scale education reform in five different settings England New Zealand the Canadian provinces of Alberta and Manitoba and the US state of Minnesota The book looks at a variety of reforms covering school choice charter schools increased testing of students stricter curriculum guidelines and local school management Drawing from theoretical and empirical work in education political theory organizational theory and public administration Reforming Education provides a clearly developed conceptual framework of analyzing reform programs The author reviews the political origins of the reforms the process of adoption into law the implementation processes used to support the reforms and the results of the reforms for students schools and communities

Curriculum Change within Policy and Practice Damian Murchan,Keith Johnston,2022-01-19 This book explores how curriculum reform is interconnected with policy practice and society Curriculum reform is increasingly associated with efforts to better the lives of citizens and provide a competitive edge to national prosperity Educational policy and practice have been the subject of unprecedented convergence worldwide in the quest for so called 21st century skills This book offers a case study of curriculum reform within the Republic of Ireland focusing on antecedents processes and outcomes of government efforts to evoke fundamental curriculum realignment at lower secondary level Set against a backdrop of fluctuating economic fortunes and concerns about academic standards and educational equity this volume has wider relevance beyond Ireland for any system undertaking education reform at scale

Change Forces Michael Fullan,2012-11-12 Knowledge of the processes of educational change is said to be the missing ingredient in attempts to bring about educational innovation and reform

Whether these efforts involve grass roots innovation or large scale societal reform failure to understand and act on existing knowledge of the change process has accounted for the widespread lack of success in making educational improvements This volume analyzes what is known about successful or productive change processes and identifies corresponding action strategies at the individual school local and state levels Included in this book is a major treatment of the topic of the ethics of planned change a neglected topic in recent literature especially since strategies for intervening in the change process are receiving more attention This book is intended to be used by teachers in training and in service teacher trainers educational researchers education historians and administrators

Inside Science Education Reform J. Myron Atkin, Paul Black, 2003-01-01 Two international leaders offer important insights into the ways in which the discipline of science education has developed and how school curriculum has been shaped by both scientific discovery and social change J Myron Atkin U S and Paul Black U K share their vast and varied experiences in this historical account that chronicles the many developments in the field from the end of World War II to the present The chapters in this volume cover the aims and politics of science education curriculum development subject matter boundaries pedagogy and learning assessment and evaluation educational research and practice and the teaching profession Each theme is introduced in its historical and philosophical context with current issues emphasized The authors then analyze these themes by drawing on relevant episodes from their transatlantic careers These episodes act as a springboard for developing insights into each theme including comparisons between educational practices in the United States and the United Kingdom Featuring compelling examples and a cohesive presentation this groundbreaking volume is essential reading for anyone making decisions about the future of science education

Dos & Don'ts of Education Reform Anthony M. Roselli, 2005 Dos & Don'ts of Education Reform is a unique critical study of legislated reform in the U S Resisting the temptation to make facile recommendations for future action this book takes pointed aim at the failure of education reform Roselli blames a narrow minded focus on testing and accountability advocating instead for an honest morally driven construction of theory and practice He breaks new ground in this close multidisciplinary examination of curriculum instruction and assessment by demonstrating how to create the conditions for a successful school experience for all students a sociocultural view of success and a strong desire to improve the human condition This book is an excellent accompaniment to courses such as social foundations of education and critical issues in education as well as those dealing with educational policy and leadership

Curriculum changes in the Visegrad Four: three decades after the fall of communism Tomáš Janík, Štefan Porubský, Magdolna Chrappán, Kinga Kuszak, 2020 School systems in the Visegrad Four countries have gone through significant change since the political upheavals of 1989 The book describes developments in curriculum and curriculum policy over the last three decades and considers the possible impact and perspectives of current changes It explores the nature of curriculum reform addresses the challenge of its implementation and highlights the reform as a means by which school quality can be improved and as a provider of aims and contents of school education Hopefully the book will contribute to the discussion of options for further curriculum development and curriculum policy in the Visegrad Four and other countries with a similar educational background

Education Reform in Societies in Transition, 2006-01-01 Framed against the background of educational change this book proposes to examine the relationship between curriculum change teacher professional development policy reform and the processes of educational change The main aims of the book are to 1 focus on educational changes and reconstruction in transitional societies that have undergone political economic and social change in the past two decades 2 provide a forum for the dissemination of research on education reconstruction and reform in transitional societies 3 disseminate ideas that enhance both the practical and theoretical aspects of educational changes in these societies 4 further knowledge and understanding of emerging trends and issues in education in these societies 5 reflect the realities of educational scenarios in each transitional society The book presents an in depth exploration of educational reconstruction in 15 transitional societies In each chapter the authors have provided an overview of educational processes in the country a distillation of education change or reform and or reconstruction in each transitional society Collectively the chapters in the book have attempted to contribute to a better understanding of the educational system in respective countries by identifying the challenges and obstacles the policy implications the teacher professional development needs and curriculum reform efforts

Extending Educational Reform Amanda Datnow, Lea Hubbard, Hugh Mehan, 2002 Can a fundamental reform in the organisation of a school lead to school improvement This shows how theory can be applied in practice to get around issues that are preventing change and improvement

Cracking the Code of Education Reform Christopher H. Tienken, 2019-08-07 Lead between the lines evaluate Ed policies to emphasize the positives and minimize the negatives Although educational reform is intended for positive change sometimes it misses the mark However when school leaders capitalize on the positive aspects of reforms they can strategize to ensure the best outcomes for students Christopher Tienken professor and international speaker shares his insights on how to identify both positive and negative aspects of education reform to maximize the benefits for students This book introduces a practical framework for interpreting educational reform within an evidence based practice and provides thoughtful ways to finesse results out of challenging policies Designed for use on the ground level this book features Seven specific creative compliance strategies to maximize student and educator success Case studies that illustrate how to critique reforms and take action Reflective questions to guide evaluation and application Ethical decision making checklist Analyzing both successful and unsuccessful reform ideas from the past this book champions creative compliance and how to lead innovatively judiciously

Studies of Education Reform Margaret E. Goertz, 1996

The Politics of Education Reform in China's Hong Kong Sonny Shiu-Hing Lo, Chung Fun Steven Hung, 2022-03-31 Education reform has become a highly political issue in the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region HKSAR since the transfer of sovereignty to the People's Republic of China PRC Lo and Hung focus on the political struggles among stakeholders including the government of Hong Kong the Catholic Church parents students teachers the central authorities of Beijing and even the bureaucratic politics between Beijing the Hong Kong government and the Examination Authority They examine the key elements of education reform in the HKSAR including language and curriculum reform national security education civic and patriotic education the rise of the pro Beijing education elites and interest groups and the revamp of examination questions and examination authority The entire education reform in the HKSAR has pushed the Hong Kong education system toward a process of mainlandization making Hong Kong s education system more similar to the mainland system with emphasis on political correctness in the understanding of Chinese national security history and culture Highlighting the political struggles among the various stakeholders this book is essential for scholars of Hong Kong and China especially those with an interest in the relationship between education and politics

Curriculum Development, Innovation and Reform Robert White,2014-05-14 This book provides key contributions by leading international researchers and scholars on a range of perspectives related to improving learning outcomes for students across educational settings from the primary years through to university and beyond It will be of interest to school administrators teachers researchers and policy makers who are interested in finding new and innovative ways to meet the needs of learners in the globalized world of the 21st century in culturally competent and meaningful ways Throughout the chapters a common theme of innovation reform and overcoming barriers to learning are highlighted and the reader will gain a considerable knowledge of strategies and techniques to improve learner engagement and outcomes in meaningful and effective ways In addition this book will be of interest to university professors who wish to find a comprehensive reader for teacher preparation courses that provide international perspectives of academics from around the world including the UK USA Australia Norway Kazakhstan and Korea This broad and international perspective also provides a starting point for discussing culture and the role it plays in educational and life outcomes and how educators can become culturally competent in designing delivering and facilitating learning experiences across sectors and around the globe

Education to Build Back Better Fernando M. Reimers,Uche Amaechi,Alysha Banerji,Margaret Wang,2022-02-09 This open access book examines the implications of the COVID 19 Pandemic for education systems and argues that major education reforms will be necessary particularly in the Global South to address the learning loss caused by the pandemic To inform those reforms knowledge about the implementation reforms in the Global South is necessary and such knowledge is seriously lacking as the existing literature on the implementation of educational change focused principally in reforms in countries in the Global North This book contributes to address this gap by examining five major education reforms in India Egypt Taiwan Vietnam and Senegal and by presenting two novel approaches to climate change education using a bottoms up strategy of reform The chapters examine the implementation process drawing on a theoretical model of educational change by Reimers published in Educating Students to Improve the World by Springer in 2020 The book concludes discussing the implementation of such reforms as an evolutionary and learning process characterized by four dimensions the goals of the reform the drivers of the reform the reform strategy and the mindsets about educational change which undergird the implementation strategy
