Curriculum Studies Reader 2nd:

The Curriculum Studies Reader David J. Flinders, Stephen J. Thornton, 2004 Grounded in historical essays this volume provides context for the growing field of curriculum studies reflecting on dominant trends in the field sampling the best of current scholarship

Open(ing) Education Dianne Conrad, Paul Prinsloo, 2020-01-20 There is no shortage of scholarly research that reflects the growing importance of open education whether referring to issues surrounding access to education formal informal or postformal different copyright licencing regimes e.g Creative Commons alternative forms of educational delivery such as Massive Open Online Courses MOOCs or alternative pathways to learning curriculum development and delivery and or assessing and accrediting learning So what can another publication add to our understanding of open education It has become clear that thinking in terms of the binaries of open versus closed can no longer account and do justice to the wide range of possibilities and the varying factors that destabilise some definitions and practices In Open ing Education Theory and Practice the authors therefore map open as emerging from a dynamic network or ecology of often mutually constitutive factors resulting in a range of possibilities The chapters in this book provide us with glimpses of open opening and opened with none of these being permanent states of affairs but rather contingent serendipitous often uncertain and fluid This book is unique not only with regard to its variety of approaches to mapping the various possibilities between open and closed but also with regard to the global spread of its many contributing authors

Out of the Dark Wendy Leigh Samford, 2016-07-12 Out of the Dark is a call for teacher leaders to take a stand against the current neoliberal take over of our educational system today This book investigates where this political power hold began theorizes why is it so hard for us to change what is happening and then explores theory into practice for supporting the development of a democratic curriculum Out of the Dark highlights example schools in various states that are fighting the monopoly of standardization by implementing their own version of visionary democratic education This book is purposefully heavy on references as to encourage teachers to become curriculum leaders through research and complicated conversation that they have with themselves and with each other It is time to stand together against the over utilization and magnified importance of standardized testing in our educational system in the United States The time is now to envision a democratic education based on an eclectic compilation of curriculum theory and fight for the significant educational contribution of our own professional wisdom prompting democratic empowerment for our students

Knowledge, Control and Critical Thinking in Singapore Leonel Lim, 2015-09-07 This book examines how critical thinking is regulated in Singapore through the process of what the influential sociologist of education Basil Bernstein termed pedagogic recontextualization The ability of critical thinking to speak to alternative possibilities and individual autonomy as well as its assumptions of a liberal arrangement of society is problematized in Singapore s socio political climate By examining how such curricular discourses are taken up and enacted in the classrooms of two schools that cater to very different groups in society the book foregrounds the role of traditional high status knowledge in the elaboration of class formation and develops a critical understanding of post developmental state initiatives linked to the parable of modernization in Singapore Knowledge Control and Critical Thinking in Singapore offers chapters on Critical Thinking and the Singapore State Meritocracy Illiberalism and Neoliberalism Sacred Knowledge and Elite Dispositions Recontextualizing Critical Thinking in an Elite School Power Knowledge and Symbolic Control Official Pedagogic Identities and the Politics of Recontextualization This book will appeal to scholars in comparative education studies curriculum studies and education reform It will also interest scholars engaged in Asian studies who are struggling to understand issues of education policy formation and implementation particularly in the areas of critical thinking and other knowledge skills

Student Teaching K.J. Fasching-Varner, 2014-02-07 The journey of becoming a teacher is a complicated emotional and often intricate endeavor Much has been written about pre service teachers but rarely do we understand the journey through their own voices Join nine pre service teachers as they share their experiences challenges and victories through a series of powerful narratives Committed to making the process more transparent for those embarking on a similar journey the chapter authors share honest personal and heartfelt viewpoints about what it means to become a teacher The nine pre service teachers in this volume all participated in a yearlong student teaching in the renowned Elementary Holmes Master of Arts in Teaching program at Louisiana State University Putting to practice critical perspectives about what it means to teach in the 21st century these authors expose their vulnerabilities with a range of literary approaches including metaphor reflective journaling and storytelling The volume is framed by teacher educator insights about the contexts and complexities of teaching A must read for anyone preparing to student teach or for those already student teaching Student Teaching A Journey in Narratives deals directly with the realities of learning to teach Sometimes poetic sometimes painful these compelling personal narratives of novice teachers provide a poignant view of the struggles fears and celebrations developing teachers traverse on the journey to induction into the profession Teacher educators and teacher candidates alike will find much to explore and discuss in these chapters No stone of learning to teach is left unturned Lisa Delpit Author of Other People s Children Cultural Conflict in the Classroom and Multiplication is for White People Raising Expectations for Other People s Children
