A Critical Introduction to Law Wade Mansell,Belinda Meteyard,Alan Thomson,2015-06-26 Challenging the usual introductions to the study of law A Critical Introduction to Law argues that law is inherently political and reflects the interests of the few even while presenting itself as neutral This fully revised and updated fourth edition provides contemporary examples to demonstrate the relevance of these arguments in the twenty first century The book includes an analysis of the common sense of law the use of anthropological examples to gain external perspectives of our use and understanding of law a consideration of central legal concepts such as order rules property dispute resolution legitimation and the rule of law an examination of the role of law in women s subordination and finally a critique of the effect of our understanding of law upon the wider world Clearly written and admirably suited to provoking discussions on the role of law in our contemporary world this book is ideal for undergraduate and postgraduate students reading law and will be of interest to those studying legal systems and skills courses jurisprudence courses and law and society Soteriologies of India and Their Role in the Perception of Disability Anand Rao,2004 At the turn of the century and the beginning of the new Millennium India has made extraordinary industrial and economic progress At the same time the sub continent is faced with innumerable problems in the area of basic social services Religion plays an important role in the interpersonal relationship and social interaction of the people Religion is not only worship and prayer but dictates such factors as who could come in physical contact with the other and who has the right to draw water from a well and who is deprived of it Because of these factors it is necessary to look at the perception of disability in the soteriologies of India This study confines itself to Hinduism as the major religion of India that is based on the achievement of salvation and thus to escape the cycle of birth death and rebirth and Christianity on the other hand that is involved in trying to improve the conditions of the poor and the needy and its main precept is the love of neighbours It would be interesting to pursue these distinctions in reviewing the perception of disability in both these religions
