No matter what your career goals, the levels of success you reach will depend on your ability to communicate. Will you become a powerful CEO, investment banker, consultant, entrepreneur, marketing or management director, financial executive, or any other type of business leader? The women and men at the top of quality organizations are skillful communicators. Almost without exception, successful business professionals are recognized for their ability to write well, to speak dynamically, and to cultivate business relationships through strong interpersonal communication skills. This course is designed to help you develop or polish those skills and to help you identify the areas you should continue to improve as you pursue your professional career.

Course Description

BUAD 302 is an experientially based course that focuses on developing communication effectiveness with an organizational context. You will be more successful in your classes, your career, and, for that matter, your life if you focus your energies on developing your communication skills. Consider this course as another valuable step in the ongoing process of becoming an effective communicator.

Goal and Learning Objectives

The overall goal of Communication Strategy in Business—BUAD 302—is to help you improve your ability to communicate successfully in the business world. This class will thus focus on learning the theory of business communication strategy as well as putting that theory into practice.
