Women of Color Navigating Mentoring Relationships Sonja M. Brown Givens, Keisha Edwards Tassie, 2016-07-18 Women of Color Navigating Mentoring Relationships explores and critically examines the opportunities and challenges presented in mentoring relationships involving women of color While all mentoring relationships are unique to the individuals involved in them this book highlights the roles of race class and gender oriented constructions in the establishment maintenance and dissolution of specific mentoring relationships in which women of color are engaged This edited collection argues that traditional notions of mentoring fail to account for intersectionality and power dynamics that can have profound effects on mentoring practices and that institutional best practices for mentoring do little to address the impact of constructions of otherness on the success or failure of mentoring relationships involving women of color Recommended for scholars of communication studies gender studies race studies and for scholars pursuing a career in academia Racial and Ethnic Relations in America S. Dale McLemore, 1983 This book focuses on the five largest ethnic groups in the U S Mexican Americans African Americans Native Americans Japanese Americans and Puerto Ricans McLemore et al present historical information and contemporary examples of the largest ethnic and minority groups in the United States Using the assimilation model they analyze the strengths and weaknesses of this model in explaining how various racial and ethnic groups have been incorporated or not into U S society Focusing on interracial and interethnic relations in the U S the authors give a sociological analysis of intergroup processes and the history of the interactions of these groups Organized thematically rather than chronologically the book illuminates the main racial and ethnic dilemmas faced in America as shown through the examples of these five groups For anyone interested in Racial and Ethnic Relations Minority Relations Multicultural Education or Ethnic Studies
