Clappitt, 1888 Echoing Hylas Mark Heerink, 2015-12-15 During a stopover of the Argo in Mysia the boy Hylas sets out to fetch water for his companion Hercules Wandering into the woods he arrives at a secluded spring inhabited by nymphs who fall in love with him and pull him into the water Mad with worry Hercules stays in Mysia to look for the boy but he will never find him again In Echoing Hylas Mark Heerink argues that the story of Hylas a famous episode of the Argonauts voyage was used by poets throughout classical antiquity to reflect symbolically on the position of their poetry in the literary tradition. Certain elements of the story including the characters of Hylas and Hercules themselves functioned as metaphors of the art of poetry. In the Hellenistic age for example the poet Theocritus employed Hylas as an emblem of his innovative bucolic verse contrasting the boy with Hercules who symbolized an older heroic epic tradition. The Roman poet Propertius further developed and transformed Theocritus's metapoetical allegory by turning Heracles into an elegiac lover in pursuit of an unattainable object of affection. In this way the myth of Hylas became the subject of a dialogue among poets across time from the Hellenistic age to the Flavian era. Each poet Heerink demonstrates used elements of the myth to claim his own place in a developing literary tradition. With this innovative diachronic approach Heerink opens a new dimension of ancient metapoetics and offers many insights into the works of Apollonius of Rhodes, Theocritus, Virgil, Ovid, Valerius Flaccus and Statius.
