Rimini Nevio Matteini, 1963      Dante and Governance John Robert Woodhouse, 1997 ante and Governance brings to the most grandiose of Dante's messages in the divine Comedy critical viewpoints whose originality would at any time constitute an important addition to Dante scholarship but the book is also notable for an approach which during the course of its composition spontaneously evolved as pragmatic and historical particularly when seen against much contemporary Dante criticism It explores Dante's breathtaking ambition to convince Europe's rulers and their subjects to create and embrace a universal peace guaranteed by Pope and Holy Roman Emperor which might afford serenity for mankind fully to develop its wonderful potentialities In that context a group of scholars internationally known for their expertise not only in Dante studies but also in medieval literature and history was invited to Oxford to discuss the poet's objectives Each chose to argue a case from a close reading of Dante's own texts using clear and jargon-free language Those deliberations created a well-focused and coherent group of papers on a variety of subjects ranging from an aesthetic appreciation of Dante's depiction of free will and moral responsibility to a feminist perception of his attitude to the role of women in fourteenth-century Florentine public life

Italian Fifteenth- to Seventeenth-century Drawings Anna Forlani Tempesti, Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.), 1991 Perhaps more than any other collector of his generation in the United States Robert Lehman was interested in acquiring early drawings He made a great effort to add drawings to the collection of paintings sculpture ceramics glass and other objects that his father Philip Lehman had begun assembling The 116 Italian drawings analyzed and discussed in this volume are among the more than 2,000 works of art from the collection now housed in the Robert Lehman Wing of The Metropolitan Museum of Art Robert Lehman's collection demonstrates the variety of drawings produced in Italy from the fifteenth to the seventeenth century a period when the purposes and techniques of drawings as well as the aims and abilities of the artist who made them became increasingly sophisticated The volume includes an elaborate design for an equestrian monument by Antonio Pollaiuolo a magnificent study of a bear by Leonardo da Vinci a cartoon by Luca Signorelli a study for a vault fresco by Taddeo Zuccaro and many other drawings that are among the best Italian examples to have survived from that era Most types of drawings in a wide variety of techniques are represented figure studies grand compositions landscapes cartoons modelli and even sculptors' studies Metropolitan Museum of Art website

Nevertheless Carlo Ginzburg, 2022-01-25 From the master of micro history a reconstruction of two contrasting early modern thinkers Nevertheless comprises essays on Machiavelli and on Pascal The ambivalent connection between the two parts is embodied by the comma in the subtitle Machiavelli Pascal Is this comma a conjunction or a disjunction In fact both Ginzburg approaches Machiavelli's work from the perspective of casuistry or case-based ethical reasoning For as Machiavelli indicated through his repeated use of the adverb nondimanco nevertheless there is an exception to every rule Such a perspective may seem to echo the traditional image of Machiavelli as a cynical machiavellian thinker But a close analysis of Machiavelli the reader as well as of the ways in which some of Machiavelli's most perceptive readers read his work throws a different light on Machiavelli the writer The same hermeneutic strategy inspires the essays on the Provinciales Pascal s ferocious attack against Jesuitical casuistry Casuistry vs anti casuistry Machiavelli s secular attitude towards religion vs Pascal s deep religiosity We are confronted apparently with two completely different worlds But Pascal read Machiavelli and reflected deeply upon his work A belated contemporary echo of this reading can unveil the complex relationship between Machiavelli and Pascal their divergences as well as their unexpected convergences The Robert Lehman Collection Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.),1987 Robert Lehman one of the foremost art collectors of his generation embraced traditional and modern masters This work catalogues 130 nineteenth and 20th century paintings that are part of the Robert Lehman Collection at the Metropolitan Museum It includes paintings by Ingres Theodore Rousseau and Corot among other early 19th century artists In addition to a group of early German drawings this collection includes a Saint Paul from a series associated with Jan van Eyck and the famous Scupstoel from the circle of Rogier van der Weyden It discusses all drawings placing each in its art historical setting and complementing it with comparative illustrations of related works

Machiavelli Researches Cecil H. Clough,1967 Connected History Sanjay Subrahmanyam,2022-01-04 A collection of essays that span many regions and cultures by an award winning historian Sanjay Subrahmanyam is becoming well known for the same sort of reasons that attach to Fernand Braudel and Carlo Ginzburg as the proponent of a new kind of history in his case not longue dur e or micro history but connected history connected cross culturally and spanning regions subjects and archives that are conventionally treated alone Not a research paradigm he insists it is more of an oppositionswissenschaft a way of trying to constantly break the moulds of historical objects The essays collected here some quite polemical as in the lead text on the notion of India as civilization or another assessing such a literary totem as V S Naipaul illustrate the breadth of Subrahmanyam s concerns as well as the quality of his writing Connected History considers what exactly is an empire the rise of the West less of a place than an idea or ideology he insists Churchill and the Great Man theory of history the reception of world literature and the itinerary of subaltern studies in addition to personal recollections of life and work in Delhi Paris and Lisbon and concluding remarks on the practice of early modern history and the framing of historical enquiry The Lamp ,1904 Book Buyer ,1904 The Book Buyer ,1904 A review and record of current literature New Scientist and Science Journal ,1998 The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells,1996
