Modernisation in Russia since 1900 Markku Kangaspuro,Jeremy Smith,2021-04-07 Modernisation has been a constant theme in Russian history at least since Peter the Great launched a series of initiatives aimed at closing the economic technical and cultural gap between Russia and the more advanced countries of Europe All of the leaders of the Soviet Union and post Soviet Russia have been intensely aware of this gap and have pursued a number of strategies some more successful than others in order to modernise the country But it would be wrong to view modernisation as a unilinear process which was the exclusive preserve of the state Modernisation has had profound effects on Russian society and the attitudes of different social groups have been crucial to the success and failure of modernisation This volume examines the broad theme of modernisation in late imperial Soviet and post Soviet Russia both through general overviews of particular topics and specific case studies of modernisation projects and their impact Modernisation is seen not just as an economic policy but as a cultural and social phenomenon reflected through such diverse themes as ideology welfare education gender relations transport political reform and the Internet The result is the most up to date and comprehensive survey of modernisation in Russia available which highlights both one of the perennial problems and the challenges and prospects for contemporary Russia
